

Application for Confirmation of Visa or Permit

Or grant of second or subsequent residence permit

Who should use this form?

You should use this form if:

- your previous passport/travel document has expired and you have a new passport/travel document which you need your visa/permit to be transferred into
- you have lost or damaged your passport/travel document and need your visa/permit to be transferred to your new passport/travel document
- you need confirmation of your New Zealand residence status
- you are applying for a second or subsequent residence permit because you previously held a residence permit, but you travelled overseas without a current returning resident's visa, and when you arrived back in New Zealand you were issued a temporary permit.

What evidence should you provide?

If you want to transfer your visa/permit into your new passport/travel document, send your previous passport or travel document and your new passport.

If you have lost or damaged your passport/travel document, provide your new passport/travel document, and evidence showing that the loss of the passport or travel document has been reported to the New Zealand police and your High Commission or Embassy.

If you arrived before 2 April 1974 and you no longer have your original passport, you must provide evidence that you have lived continuously in either New Zealand or Australia since 2 April 1974 (eg your new passport, evidence of your non-New Zealand citizenship, rates demands, drivers licence, receipted power bills, income tax returns, school records, or employment references).

If you are applying for a second/subsequent residence permit, you must provide the evidence outlined in Section D.

Where do you send your application?

Send your application to your nearest Immigration New Zealand office. For office addresses see our website www.immigration.govt.nz/contactus.

When filling in this form, please print clearly using CAPITAL LETTERS.

About the information you provide

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa or permit

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a visa or permit.

The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 3705, Wellington, New Zealand. Do not send your application to this address.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 1987 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand.

We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies.

If you are in New Zealand, you can ask to see the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary.
