A Guide for Partners and Dependents of Workers

If your partner holds a work permit for more than six months we may grant you a work visa for the same length of time your partner is allowed to work in New Zealand.

You must show that you are in a genuine and stable relationship with your partner. Your partner must:

- meet the character requirement for partners supporting partnership-based temporary entry applications
- intend to be in New Zealand for the period you apply for in your application

However, you are not eligible for a permit if your partner's work permit:

- was granted under the Horticulture and Viticulture Industries Seasonal Work Permit (SWP) Policy
- was granted under the Crew of foreign chartered fishing vessels policy
- was granted under the Recognised Seasonal Employer (RSE) Work Policy

If your partner holds a New Zealand student visa or permit, we may grant you a work visa for the same validity. You must be in a genuine and stable relationship with your partner and they must hold a New Zealand student visa/permit to study:

- a qualification in an area of absolute skill shortage as specified in the Long Term Skill Shortage List, or
- a postgraduate qualification.

If your partner holds a student permit which does not meet these criteria, you may apply for a visitor's visa.

Application checklist

It is important that you provide all the relevant information requested below so we can accept and process your application promptly. If any of the following are not received, the application may not be accepted for assessment.

All documents not in English must be translated by a translation service. A translation service may NOT certify documents as original.

Application forms can be downloaded and other relevant information may be found on our website www.immigration.govt.nz.

1. APPLICATION FORM

Partners and dependent children of student or work visa or permit applicants must lodge a separate application for a work visa (for partners), or student or visitor's visa (for children).
