Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007, anyone giving immigration advice will have to be licensed (unless they are exempt). From 4 May 2009, all immigration advisers working in New Zealand must be licensed. From 4 May 2010, all immigration advisers, whether working onshore or offshore, must be licensed. It is an offence to provide immigration advice without holding a licence from these dates.

If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the Register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, email info@iaa.govt.nz, or write to them at PO Box 6222, Wellesley Street, Auckland 1141, New Zealand.

Category of entry you are applying for:

Residence from Work Pacific Access Category
 Samoan Quota Refugee Family Support Category
 Family
 Other (please specify)

If you are applying under Partnership or Dependent Child policies in the Family Category, please answer the following question:

Is your partner or sponsor an expatriate New Zealander?

Yes No

Note: For the purposes of prioritising such applications, an expatriate New Zealander is either:

- i. A New Zealand citizen, or
- ii. the holder of an Indefinite Returning Resident's Visa, and has been absent from New Zealand for a period of at least two years prior to the date of this application (apart from short visits within that period).

Please note, in the case of a partnership application the New Zealand sponsor must have been living together with the principal applicant for 12 months or more in a partnership that is genuine and stable.

If you require extra space for any question in this form, please continue on a separate sheet of paper and staple to your application.

Staple two recent passport-sized photographs of yourself below.

Write your name on the back of each photograph.

SECTION G: DECLARATION

For help, see Section G of the "Guide to Applying for Residence in New Zealand" (NZIS 1002).

This section must be signed by the principal applicant and any partner and dependent children aged 17 years and over who are included in the application. Make sure you understand the declarations below before you sign them.

Important

- I understand that if I make any false statements, or provide any false or misleading information, or have changed or altered this form in any way, my application may be declined, or my residence visa or permit may later be revoked, and that I may also be committing an offence and be liable to prosecution.
- I understand the notes and questions in this form and I declare the information given about myself, my partner and any children is true and complete.
- I declare that I have listed all my family members, including any adopted by custom and my grandparents or legal guardians (if any) if both my parents are deceased, and understand that the non-declaration of any family members may result in that family member not being recognised as part of my family in future applications.
- I declare that I will inform Immigration New Zealand (INZ) of any relevant fact or any change of circumstances that may: (i) affect the decision on my application for a permit, or (ii) affect the decision to grant a permit in reliance on the visa for which I am applying.
- I am aware that convictions for certain criminal offences committed up to 10 years after first being granted a residence visa or residence permit can result in deportation from New Zealand.
- I declare that there are no matters or warrants outstanding, or investigations of any kind, which could have any current or future effect on the assessment of my good character or the good character of any other persons included in this application.
- I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return my application.
- I authorise INZ to make any enquiries it deems necessary in respect of the information provided on this form and to share this information with other government agencies (including overseas agencies) to the extent necessary to make decisions about my immigration status. I also consent to any organisation providing relevant information to INZ about me.
- I authorise INZ to provide information about my state of health and my immigration status to any health service agency. I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my state of health to INZ.
- I accept that any advice given to me by INZ before lodging this application was intended to assist me, and acting on that does not mean that my application for residence will be approved.
- I understand that in order to work in certain occupations in New Zealand, registration is required by law. I accept that the granting of residence does not guarantee that registration will be granted.
- I have read and understood the information provided by INZ regarding the cost of living in New Zealand, found in the booklet, "New Start. New Opportunities. New Zealand", supplied with the "Self-Assessment Guide for Residence in New Zealand" (NZIS 1003). I have sufficient personal resources to maintain myself and my dependants for at least my first 24 months as a resident in New Zealand. (This does not apply to applicants under the Refugee Family Support Category, applicants under the Family Category or whose sponsor has been recognised as a refugee, or applicants under the Partnership policy or Dependent Child policies.)
The personal resources I will use are: (tick at least one)
 - My cash and assets
 - A verified definite offer of employment in New Zealand (evidence attached)
 - Support from family members in New Zealand, verified by attaching the Sponsorship Form for Residence in New Zealand (NZIS 1024), completed by a family member.
- I agree that information about my personal resources and the contents of this form may be provided to Work and Income (a service unit of the Ministry of Social Development) if I apply for an emergency benefit. I understand that I will need to give a copy of this declaration to Work and Income if I apply for an emergency benefit.
- I understand that I am not entitled to an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship from Work and Income for the first 24 months of my residence in New Zealand unless I can show that I am in hardship. I also understand that if I apply for an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship that I will need to show that I cannot support myself and my dependants before any application for emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship or sickness benefit on ground of hardship is considered. I understand that my application for an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship may be declined if I have deprived myself of income or property, by gift or any other method.
- If my application is approved under the Family – Parent Policy, Family – Sibling or Adult Child Policy, or Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Policy, I agree that the Ministry of Social Development may provide INZ with:
 - any information concerning welfare assistance that I (or any other person included in my application for residence) have applied for, or have been granted, during the 24 months in which my residence in New Zealand is sponsored; and
 - any information that I provide to the Ministry of Social Development about my sponsor.

ADVANCE PASSENGER SCREENING

- New Zealand has implemented a system designed to enhance the security of New Zealand's borders. You may be refused permission to board your flight to come to, or return to, New Zealand if:
 - you do not have an appropriate visa to enter New Zealand; or
 - your visa has expired; or
 - your visa has not been transferred to your current/new passport or the passport being used to enter New Zealand.
- To minimise any disruption to your travel plans please ensure your travel documents are up-to-date and that you have the appropriate and current visa. If you have any questions check www.immigration.govt.nz.

RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

How do you want your documents returned to you?

- By mail
- Collected by you or a nominated person

PRIVACY ACT

- The information about you and your family on this form is collected so that your eligibility for residence in New Zealand can be properly determined and may be used to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters. This information may also be used to determine your entitlement to board a flight to come to or return to New Zealand. Your personal information will not be shared with airline check in agents, however a boarding message will be returned to the airline check in agent based on information you have supplied on this form.
- The main recipient of the information is Immigration New Zealand, a service of the Department of Labour, but it may also be shared with other government agencies which are entitled to this information under applicable legislation. In particular, Work and Income (a service unit of the Ministry of Social Development) may be given information about your personal resources.
- The collection of the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 1987 and the Immigration Regulations made under the Act. The supply of the information is voluntary, but if you do not supply it then your application for residence is likely to be declined.
- You will, if you are in New Zealand, have the right to see the information about you held by Immigration New Zealand and to ask for any of it to be corrected if you think that is necessary. The addresses of Immigration New Zealand can be found in the "Self-Assessment Guide for Residence in New Zealand" (NZIS 1003) or on the INZ website at www.immigration.govt.nz.
