Samoan Quota Scheme applicants go to Section R: Declaration

Section R Declaration

This section must be signed by the principal applicant and any partner and dependent children aged 18 years and over who are included in the application. Make sure you understand the declarations below before you sign them.

i For more information about the declaration, see Section 'Completing Section R: Declaration' in the Residence Guide.

I understand that if I make any false statements, or provide any false or misleading information, or have changed or altered this form in any way, my application may be declined, or I may become liable for deportation.

I understand the notes and questions in this form and I declare the information given about myself, my partner and any children is true and complete.

I declare that I have listed all my family members, including any adopted by custom and my grandparents or legal guardians (if any) if both my parents are deceased, and understand that the non-declaration of any family members may result in that family member not being recognised as part of my family in future applications.

I will inform Immigration New Zealand of any relevant fact or change of circumstances that may (i) affect the decision on my application for a visa, or (ii) affect the decision to grant entry permission based on the visa for which I am applying.

I am aware that convictions for certain criminal offences committed up to 10 years after first being granted a residence class visa can result in deportation from New Zealand.

I declare that there are no matters or warrants outstanding, or investigations of any kind, which could have any current or future effect on the assessment of my good character or the good character of any other persons included in this application.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return my application.

I understand that Immigration New Zealand may provide information about my entitlement to work to potential employers via the online VisaView system. VisaView is authorised by legislation.

I authorise INZ to make any enquiries it deems necessary in respect of the information provided on this form and/or accompanying documentation, and to share this information with other government agencies (including overseas agencies) to the extent necessary to make decisions about my immigration status.

I authorise any agency whether in New Zealand or overseas, including but not limited to border or immigration agencies, education providers, financial institutions, foreign embassies, government authorities, healthcare providers, police or other law enforcement agencies, that holds information (including personal information) related to information on this form and/or accompanying documentation to disclose that information to Immigration New Zealand.

I authorise INZ to provide information about my state of health and my immigration status to any health service agency. I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my state of health to INZ.

I accept that any advice given to me by INZ before lodging this application was intended to assist me, and acting on that does not mean that my application for residence will be approved.

I understand that in order to work in certain occupations in New Zealand, registration is required by law. I accept that the granting of a residence class visa does not guarantee that registration will be granted.

I have sufficient personal resources to maintain myself and my dependants for at least my first 24 months as a resident in New Zealand. (This does not apply to applicants under the Refugee Family Support Category, applicants under the Family categories or whose sponsor has been recognised as a refugee, applicants under the Family: Partnership Category or Family: Dependent Child Category, or applicants under the Religious Worker instructions.)

The personal resources I will use are (tick at least one):

- my cash and assets
- a verified definite offer of employment in New Zealand (evidence attached)
- support from family members in New Zealand, verified by attaching the Sponsorship Form for Residence (INZ 1024), completed by a family member.

I agree that information about my personal resources and the contents of this form may be provided to Work and Income (a service unit of the Ministry of Social Development) if I apply for an emergency benefit. I understand that I will need to give a copy of this declaration to Work and Income if I apply for an emergency benefit.

I understand that I am not entitled to an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship from Work and Income for the first 24 months of my residence in New Zealand unless

I can show that I am in hardship. I also understand that if I apply for an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship that I will need to show that I cannot support myself and my dependants before any application for emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship is considered. I understand that my application for an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship may be declined if I have deprived myself of income or property, by gift or any other method.

If my application is approved under the Family: Parent Category, Family: Sibling or Adult Child Category, or Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Instructions, I agree that the Ministry of Social Development may provide INZ with:

- any information concerning welfare assistance that I (or any other person included in my application for residence) have applied for, or have been granted, during the five years in which my residence in New Zealand is supported, and
- any information that I provide to the Ministry of Social Development about my sponsor.

Should my residence application be approved under the Family: Parent Category, I understand that my resident visa will be subject to the condition, under section 55 of the Immigration Act 2009, that my sponsor must meet the obligations they agreed to in the Sponsorship Form for Residence (INZ 1024). If my sponsor fails to meet their obligations, I understand I may become liable for deportation.

Should my residence application be approved under Religious Worker instructions, I understand that my resident visa will be subject to the condition, under Section 55 of the Immigration Act 2009, that my sponsor must meet the obligations they agreed to in the Sponsorship Form for Religious Workers (INZ 1190) for five years. If my sponsor fails to meet their obligations, I understand I may be liable for deportation. I agree that the Ministry of Social Development may provide INZ with:

- any information concerning welfare assistance that I (or any other person included in my application for residence) have applied for, or have been granted, during the five years in which my residence in New Zealand is supported, and for the period since I was granted a work visa under Religious Worker immigration instructions, and
- any information that I provide to the Ministry of Social Development about my sponsor.

Should my residence application be approved under the Family: Sibling Adult Child Category or the Talent (Arts Sport and Culture) Instructions, I understand that my resident visa will be subject to the condition under section 55 of the Immigration Act 2009 for two years, that my sponsor must meet the obligations they agreed to in the Sponsorship Form for Residence (INZ 1024). If my sponsor fails to meet their obligations, I understand I may become liable for deportation.

About the information you provide

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a resident visa. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand's online VisaView system. VisaView is authorised by legislation.

If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information via VisaView you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand.

We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies (as you have agreed in the declaration).

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 3705, Wellington, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent.

Other documents we may need or you may wish to send

We may ask for additional documents or information so that we can consider it with this application.

You may wish to send other documents or information so that we can consider it with this application. Send photocopies only (not original documents), as these documents will not be returned to you. If we need to see an original document, we will ask you to produce it later.
