Migrant Exploitation Protection Work Visa Application

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you are applying for a work visa because:

- you have made a report of exploitation to the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment and it has been assessed as credible that exploitation may have occurred; and
- your current work visa is linked to your employer.

When filling in this form, write clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

Application checklist

All applicants must provide:

☐	Completed, signed application form.
☐	Two passport-sized colour photographs.
☐	Passport or travel document*.
☐	Report of Exploitation Assessment Letter issued by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment

While you can provide a certified copy of your passport with your application, we highly recommend you provide your original passport. This will enable us to process your application faster and it may be needed to complete your application. Please note during the processing of an application an immigration officer may request any document, including your original passport*

Note: Detailed information about the requirements for the work visa is available on the Immigration New Zealand website, www.immigration.govt.nz.

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a work visa. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies (as you have agreed in the declaration). You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent. Sometimes we may ask for additional documents or information so that we can consider it with this application.

Other documents you may wish to send

You may wish to send other documents or information so that we can consider it with this application. Send photocopies only (not original documents), as these documents will not be returned to you. If we need to see an original document, you will be asked to produce it later.

VisaView

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand's online VisaView system. Disclosure of information through VisaView is authorised by legislation.

If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information about you via VisaView, you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.
