 - Applicants have an hourly rate equivalent to or higher than twice the median wage (currently $51.00 per hour or an annual salary of $106,080 or more);
 - Applicants hold current occupational registration where registration is required by immigration instructions;
 - o For Residence from Work Category applications (Talent (Accredited Employer), Talent (Arts, Culture and Sport), South Island Contribution, Religious Worker and Long Term Skill Shortage List), priority will be given to:

 - Applications which include a job offer which requires occupational registration where occupational registration is required by immigration instructions;
 - ii. Partnership and Dependent Child Family Residence applications;

 - o Residence instructions for holders of work visas granted under the Talent (Accredited Employers) work instructions (who meet requirements set out in RW2.1)
 - o Christchurch response (2019)
 - o Global impact visa.
- b. Second Priority will be given to residence class visa applications where the applicant is offshore (other than those that meet criteria for prioritisation above).

Temporary Entry Class Visa Applications

- c. First priority will be given to the following types and categories of applications for temporary entry class visas in preference to applications under other types and categories:
 - i. Visas applications and variation of condition requests for those invited to apply under the COVID-19 Support Restricted Temporary instructions;
 - ii. Visa applications for victims of domestic violence;
 - iii. Applications to travel under the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) travel card programme made by people who are not New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders;

- d. Second priority will be given to all other temporary entry class visas where the applicant is offshore (other than those that meet criteria for prioritisation above).

- e. Within the priorities set out above, applications should generally be processed in lodgement date order.
- f. These instructions do not prevent immigration officers according urgency to the processing of any particular visa application when the individual circumstances so warrant that.

The previous General Instructions made under section 26(4) of the Immigration Act 2009 are revoked.
