About APEC

The Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Forum was established in 1989 to promote free trade and economic growth throughout the Asia-Pacific region.

APEC is committed to achieving free and open trade and investment within the participating APEC economies by 2020. To assist in achieving this goal, the Business Mobility Group was formed in 1997 with the purpose of providing facilitation for business travellers in the participating APEC economies through the use of the APEC Business Travel Card.

The APEC Business Travel Card

Time is precious when you travel overseas for business, so why wait around in queues?

The APEC Business Travel Card provides accredited business people with streamlined entry to economies participating in the APEC Business Travel Card Scheme.

The APEC Business Travel Card application is valid for five years from issue of the first card.

Based on a unique electronic pre-clearance system, the card saves time and effort when travelling between the participating APEC economies.

Used in conjunction with your passport, the card simplifies pre-travel arrangements and makes business travel to participating countries more accessible.

Some of the key benefits are

- express immigration clearance through designated APEC lanes on arrival and departure
- no need to apply for visas or entry permits
- multiple short term entry to participating economies

International travel with greater ease

The APEC Business Travel Card is valid for travel to:

Australia	Mexico
Brunei Darussalam	New Zealand
Canada	Papua New Guinea
Chile	Peru
China	Philippines
Chinese Taipei	Russia
Hong Kong (China)	Singapore
Indonesia	Thailand
Japan	United States of America
Republic of Korea	Vietnam
Malaysia

Note - The United States and Canada are transitional members of the APEC Business Travel Card Scheme and only provide lanes for expedited travel at main international airports. Visas are still required for travel to these economies.

With more economies joining the scheme each year, the card is an invaluable and affordable asset for any frequent business traveller.

Each country maintains its sovereign right to determine who will enter their economy and preserve existing conditions of entry.

The card does not replace a passport; cardholders still need to card their passports when they travel.

Are you eligible to apply in New Zealand?

The APEC Business Travel Card is available to New Zealand business people engaged in trade and investment activities, who:

- are nationals of New Zealand and hold a New Zealand passport
- travel frequently to conduct trade and investment activities in participating APEC countries
- have not been convicted of a criminal offence, or deported from, or asked to leave, or been refused entry, or otherwise excluded entry from any country.

Applying for the card

The APEC Business Travel Card is issued by the Auckland branch of Immigration New Zealand. To apply, simply complete the application form and send with a passport-sized photo and the application fee (NZD$150).

The pre-clearance requirements of the economies you select determine when your card will be issued.

APEC BUSINESS TRAVEL CARD APPLICATION

Other information

Is this your first application for an APEC Business travel card?

- Yes No

Options for receiving an interim card

If you would like to receive an interim card, please select up to five economies for which you urgently require pre-clearance. An interim card will be issued when these economies approve your application. The five-year validity of your card will start from the issue of this interim card and a final card will be issued when all economies have made their decision.
