Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007, it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

Section C  Your family

In this section, please give details of ALL your family, whether they are migrating with you or not. It is not necessary to list deceased family members.

For more information, see ‘Completing Section D: Your family’ in the Residence Guide (INZ 1002).

Note: if you do not declare all your partner’s family members, your residence application could be declined.
If you are granted residence and it is later found that all family members were not declared, you may become liable for deportation.
In addition, any family members not declared may not be eligible for residence.

C1 Please give your parents’ details. Include both biological and adoptive parents, if applicable. If your parents are deceased, give details of legal guardians (if any), and/or grandparents.

Section I Declaration

The principal applicant, any partner and dependent children aged 18 years and over who are included in this application must agree to the following terms and conditions and sign the declaration space below. Please ensure you understand the declarations below before you sign and agree to them.

I understand that the information I provided in my expression of interest constitutes part of this application for residence and that the onus is on me to check that no information provided in my expression of interest is now incorrect or incomplete.

I understand that if I make any false statements or provide any false or misleading information, or have changed or altered this form in any material way after it has been signed, my application for residence may be declined, and I may lose any right of appeal of the decision to decline the application. I may become liable for deportation. I may also be committing an offence and I may be imprisoned.

I have provided true and correct answers to the questions in this form.

I declare that I provided a full list of my family members in this application (including any children adopted by law or by custom and my grandparents or legal guardians (if any) if both my parents are deceased), and understand that the non-declaration of any family members may result in that family member not being recognised as part of my family in future applications.

I will inform Immigration New Zealand of any relevant fact or change of circumstances that may (i) affect the decision on my application for a visa, or (ii) affect the decision to grant entry permission based on the visa for which I am applying.

I declare that there are no matters or warrants outstanding, or investigations of any kind, which could have any current or future effect on the assessment of my good character, or the good character of any other persons included in this application.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to make any enquiries it deems necessary regarding the information provided on this form and/or accompanying documentation and to share this information with other government agencies (including overseas agencies) to the extent necessary to make decisions about my immigration status.

I authorise any agency whether in New Zealand or overseas, including but not limited to border or immigration agencies, education providers, financial institutions, foreign embassies, government authorities, healthcare providers, police or other law enforcement agencies, that holds information (including personal information) related to information on this form and/or accompanying documentation to disclose that information to Immigration New Zealand.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return my application.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to provide information about my health and my immigration status to any health service agency. I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my health to Immigration New Zealand.

About the information you provide

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa.

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to determine your eligibility for residence in New Zealand. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not supply it then your application for residence is likely to be declined.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies to the extent necessary to make decisions about your immigration status (as you have agreed in the declaration). In particular, the Ministry of Social Development (Work and Income) may be given information about your personal resources.

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent.

For more information

If you have questions about completing the form:
• see our website www.immigration.govt.nz/contactus, or
• telephone our call centre on 0508 558 855 (within New Zealand).
