Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

Refer to the Work Visa Guide

The Work Visa Guide (INZ 1016) contains important information about the requirements for a work visa and how to complete the form. It can be downloaded from www.immigration.govt.nz/forms.

When filling in this form, write clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

- No Go to C6

C5 If you intend to give birth in New Zealand, please indicate how the cost of maternity health services will be paid for and provide the relevant evidence.

- Not applicable as I do not intend to give birth in New Zealand.
- I am, or will be eligible for publicly-funded maternity health services and have provided evidence of my eligibility.
- I will cover the cost myself and have attached copies (not originals) that I have at least NZ$9000 of funds available.
- My sponsor has guaranteed to cover the cost and I have attached a completed Sponsorship Form for Temporary Entry (INZ 1025).

Medical certificates you must provide

C6 Will you be in New Zealand for more than six months in total?

- No You do not have to provide a chest X-ray certificate or a medical certificate. Go to Section D: Your character.
- Yes You may have to provide a chest X-ray certificate and a medical certificate if indicated at C7.

C7 How long do you intend to stay in New Zealand? If you are in New Zealand, this includes time you have already spent here.

- More than six months but not more than 12 months. You must provide a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096) if you are from, or have visited for more than three months, a place that is not listed as having a low incidence of tuberculosis unless the notes below apply to you. Then go to C8.
- More than 12 months. You must provide a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096) and a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007). See notes below, then go to C8.

Notes:

- Refer to 'Completing Section C: Your health' in the Work Visa Guide (INZ 1016) for the 'List of countries, areas and territories with a low incidence of tuberculosis'.
- Pregnant women are not required to have an X-ray, unless a special report is required.
- You do not need to provide a chest X-ray certificate if you have provided one which was issued less than 36 months ago, with a previous Immigration New Zealand application, unless your health has deteriorated since your previous certificate was issued, or unless you have spent six consecutive months since your previous certificate was issued, in a place not listed as having a low incidence of tuberculosis.
- You do not need to provide a medical certificate if you have provided one which was issued less than 36 months ago, with a previous Immigration New Zealand application, unless your health has deteriorated since your previous certificate was issued.

C8 Tick the option below which applies to you

- I am required to provide both a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096) and a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007). Go to C9.
- I am required to provide only a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096) because:
- I am staying between six to 12 months and I am from, or have visited for more than three months, a place that is not listed as having a low incidence of tuberculosis, go to C9; or
 - I have previously provided a chest X-ray certificate; however:
 - it was dated by the radiologist more than 36 months ago go to C9, or
 - my health has deteriorated since my last certificate was issued, or
 - I have spent six consecutive months since my previous certificate was issued, in a place not listed as having a low incidence of tuberculosis. Go to C9.
- I am required to provide a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096), however, as I am pregnant I am not required to have an X-ray; and:
- I am not required to provide a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007) at this stage; or
 - I have therefore provided only a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007). Go to C9.
- I am required to provide a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007) because:
- I have provided a chest X-ray certificate which was issued less than 36 months ago with a previous Immigration New Zealand application, or
 - I have previously provided a medical certificate, however:
 - it was dated by the examining physician more than 36 months ago; or
 - my health has deteriorated since my last certificate was issued. Go to C9.
- I do not have to provide a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096) or a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007) at this stage because:
- I have provided a medical certificate and chest X-ray certificate which were issued less than 36 months ago, with a previous Immigration New Zealand application; and
 - my health has not deteriorated; and
 - I have not spent six consecutive months in a place which is not listed as having a low incidence of tuberculosis since my previous certificate was issued. Go to Section D: Your character.

C9 Tick the option that applies to you: Is a physician submitting your medical and/or chest X-ray certificate to Immigration New Zealand on your behalf?

- Yes Has your physician supplied you with an eMedical Reference Code (NZER)?
- Yes Enter your eMedical Reference Code here: _____
 - No Enter the name of the clinic that is submitting your health information: _____
- No If the physician has returned the medical and/or chest X-ray certificate to you, then you will need to submit these with your visa application.

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a work visa. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies (as you have agreed in the declaration).

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent.

Sometimes we may ask for additional documents or information so that we can consider it with this application.

Other documents you may wish to send

You may wish to send other documents or information so that we can consider it with this application. Send photocopies only (not original documents), as these documents will not be returned to you. If we need to see an original document, you will be asked to produce it later.

VisaView

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand's online VisaView system. Disclosure of information through VisaView is authorised by legislation.

If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information about you via VisaView, you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.
