Application for a Variation of Conditions or a Variation of Travel Conditions

for changing the conditions of a temporary visa

Who may apply for a variation of conditions?

You may be able to apply for a variation of conditions if you hold a student visa, a work visa, or a visitor visa. Your application will only be granted if the new conditions would meet the immigration instructions your original visa was issued under.

Student visa holders

You may be able to apply for a variation of conditions to allow you to change the course you are studying, the education provider you are studying with or the location of your study, or to allow you to work part-time and/or full-time during your holidays.

You must obtain a variation of conditions before changing your course, education provider and/or the location of your study. Please contact us on 0508 558 855 to discuss your situation if you need help applying for a variation of conditions.

If you withdraw from your course of study and/or education provider before varying the conditions of your visa, you will be in breach of your visa conditions. Applicants who breach their visa conditions may not ordinarily be granted a variation of conditions and may become liable for deportation.

If you are the legal guardian of someone who holds a student visa which is conditional on them living with you, you may be able to apply for a variation of conditions which temporarily exempts them from this requirement. The variation of conditions will only be granted if an immigration officer is satisfied that an emergency exists which requires you to temporarily return to your home country.

Work visa holders

You may apply for a variation of conditions to allow you to change your occupation, your employer, your place of employment or to study part-time.

If you hold a partnership based work visa with conditions, you may apply for a variation of conditions to remove those conditions.

If you are applying to work for a different employer and they are not accredited under the Accredited Employer work visa (AEWV) policy or the Talent (Accredited Employers) policy, your new employer will need to complete an Employer Supplementary Form (INZ 1113), which must be attached to this application

Essential Skills visa holders

If you hold an Essential Skills work visa, you may apply to change your employer, occupation, or location of employment.

If you are changing your occupation or location of employment your employer must have advertised the role and been unable to find suitable and available New Zealand workers for the job. If your occupation is on an Essential Skills in Demand list or the Green list and you meet the requirements of the list, or you are paid at least twice the median wage, then your employer does not need to have advertised the role.

If you are changing your occupation you will need to demonstrate that you are suitably qualified for the job.

Visitor visa holders

You may be able to apply for a variation of conditions to allow you to study part-time or to undertake seasonal work in the horticulture or viticulture industries.

If you hold a visitor visa granted for the purpose of being a guardian to a foreign fee-paying student, your variation of conditions will only allow you to work between the hours of 9:30 am and 2:30 pm Monday to Friday (inclusive) or to study part-time.

If you hold a visitor visa granted on the basis of your relationship to your parent, or hold a general visitor visa, you may be able to apply for a variation of conditions to allow you to work for up to 40 hours per week between 1 December and 31 January (inclusive) and up to 20 hours per week at other times. To be eligible, you must be between 17 and 24 years old (inclusive), and if you are 17 provide evidence that you have completed your final year of secondary school, and be included in or have made a residence application as a dependent child under one of the following categories:

- Dependent Child Resident Visa
- Partnership Category
- Skilled Migrant Category
- Green List: Straight to Residence

- Green List: Work to Residence
- Care Workforce: Work to Residence
- Transport Sector: Work to Residence

Who may apply for a variation of travel conditions?

You may apply for a variation of travel conditions if you hold a student visa, a work visa or a visitor visa and you wish to leave New Zealand and return under the same visa conditions or you wish to vary the first entry date stated on your visa.

What should you send with your application?

When you have completed the form use the checklist at the end to make sure you have sent all the documents we need.

Where do you send your application?

Send it to your nearest Immigration New Zealand office. See www.immigration.govt.nz/contactus for office addresses.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

VisaView

It is an offence for an employer to employ a person who is not entitled to work for them in New Zealand. It is also an offence for an education provider to allow a person to undertake a course of study if that person is not entitled to do so.

VisaView is an online enquiry system that allows registered employers and education providers to check whether a person who is not a New Zealand citizen can work or study in New Zealand for them.

If you believe that an employer or education provider has been given the wrong information via VisaView you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.

About the information you provide

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a visitor visa or a limited visa. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies.

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. Do not send your application to this address.

Other documents we may need

Sometimes we may ask for additional documents or information to consider with an application.

You may wish to send other documents or information so that we can consider it with this application. Send photocopies only (not original documents), as these documents will not be returned to you. If we need to see an original document, we will ask you to produce it later.
