under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) work and residence instructions

Information for sponsors

This form is for sponsoring a person who is applying for:

- a temporary work visa under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Work Instructions allowing a stay of 30 months in New Zealand, or
- a resident visa under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Residence Instructions.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

When filling in this form, please print clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

What are the support and sponsorship requirements?

A person applying for either a work visa under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sport) work instructions or a resident visa under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Residence instructions must be supported by a 'New Zealand organisation of national repute' and must be sponsored by an acceptable sponsor. A 'New Zealand organisation of national repute' is defined as an organisation which:

- has a nationally-recognised record of excellence in a field of art, culture or sport, or
- has a nationally-recognised record of excellence in fostering exceptional talent in a field of art, culture or sport.

Immigration New Zealand (INZ) may, where it considers it necessary, make enquiries with persons and organisations (including Creative New Zealand and the New Zealand Academy of Sport) associated with the applicant's declared field of art, culture or sport, to determine whether the supporting organisation is a New Zealand organisation of national repute.

An acceptable sponsor may be an individual, an organisation (a registered company, an incorporated society or a charitable trust), or a government agency. For an organisation or a government agency to be an acceptable sponsor, they must nominate a contact person authorised to make representations and enter into agreements on behalf of the organisation or government agency, to complete this form and sign the sponsorship undertakings.

The sponsor does not have to be the same organisation as the supporting 'New Zealand organisation of national repute'.

What section of the form must be completed, and what evidence is required, depends on whether the applicant is applying for a work visa or a resident visa.

For an applicant for a work visa

The supporting organisation must:

- demonstrate they are a 'New Zealand organisation of national repute' in their field of art, culture or sport; and
- confirm they support the applicant's work visa application by completing this form at Section B: Details of New Zealand organisation of national repute; and
- state the reasons why they consider the applicant's presence in New Zealand will enhance the quality of New Zealand's accomplishments and participation in the applicant's declared field of art, culture or sport.

The sponsor must:

- demonstrate they are an acceptable sponsor; and
- complete and sign Section F: Declaration by sponsor confirming that they will meet the applicant's requirements for maintenance, accommodation, and repatriation if necessary. Maintenance involves undertaking to make available to the applicant, if necessary, funds in New Zealand at the rate of:
  - a minimum of NZ$1,000 per month (if accommodation is not available for the applicant at no cost to him/her), or
  - a minimum of NZ$400 per month (if accommodation is available for the applicant at no cost to him/her).

The sponsor can also undertake to pay for the maternity health costs of the applicant if they are pregnant and intending to give birth in New Zealand (evidence of at least NZ$9,000 is required).

For an applicant for a resident visa

The supporting organisation must:

- demonstrate they are a 'New Zealand organisation of national repute' in their field of art, culture or sport; and
- confirm they support the applicant's resident visa application by completing Section B of this form; and
- state the reasons why they consider the applicant's presence in New Zealand will continue to enhance the quality of New Zealand's accomplishments and participation in the applicant's declared field of art, culture or sport.

The sponsor must complete Section E: Sponsorship undertakings, confirming the following undertakings to:

- ensure that adequate accommodation in New Zealand is and continues to be available for the applicant; and
- provide accommodation during the first 24 months of the applicant's residence in New Zealand if necessary, and
- provide financial support during the first 24 months of the applicant's residence in New Zealand if necessary, and
- repay to the Crown any costs to the Crown which result from their failure to meet their obligations as a sponsor, and acknowledge that if those costs are incurred they become a debt to the Crown.

Who qualifies for a work visa under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Work Instructions?

Non-New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders who:

- have exceptional talent in a declared field of art, culture or sport
- are supported by a New Zealand organisation of national repute
- have an acceptable sponsor
- are aged 55 years or younger
- meet immigration health and character requirements, and
- are bona fide applicants intending to abide by their visa conditions.

Applicants may apply at any offshore or onshore office of INZ and must meet the relevant application requirements:

- completed application form and photos, fee, immigration levy and passport
- acceptable medical and X-ray certificates and police certificates
- completed sponsorship form
- support from a New Zealand organisation of national repute in their declared field of art, culture or sport, and any other documents or information required by the application form or INZ).

See our Work Visa Guide (INZ 1016) for further details.

What is 'exceptional talent in a field of art, culture or sport'?

Applicants are considered to have exceptional talent in a declared field of art, culture or sport where INZ is satisfied that:

- they have an international reputation and record of excellence in their declared field, and
- they are still prominent in that field, and
- their presence in New Zealand will enhance the quality of New Zealand's accomplishments and participation in that field.

INZ may, where it considers it necessary, make enquiries with persons and organisations (including Creative New Zealand and the New Zealand Academy of Sport) associated with the applicant's declared field of art, culture or sport to determine whether the applicant has exceptional talent in that field.

People granted Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) work visas are granted multiple entry work visas enabling a stay of 30 months in New Zealand. Their visas are endorsed with conditions that allow work for any employer.

Who qualifies for a resident visa under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Residence Instructions?

Non-New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders who:

- have held a work visa granted under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Work Instructions for a period of at least 24 months
- during the currency of that visa, have been actively engaged in their declared field of art, culture or sport throughout a period of 24 months
- are still prominent in that field
- whose continued presence in New Zealand will enhance the quality of New Zealand's accomplishments and participation
- are supported by a New Zealand organisation of national repute in their declared field
- have an acceptable sponsor
- meet immigration health and character requirements, and
- have not, at any time since the grant of their visa under the Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Work Instructions, applied for or been granted welfare assistance under the Social Security Act 1964.

See our Self-Assessment Guide for Residence in New Zealand (INZ 1003) for further details.
