Application for an Agreement to Recruit

under the Recognised Seasonal Employer Scheme

Please download a copy of this form from our website each time to ensure you get the current version. www.immigration.govt.nz

Information for employers

If you are an employer who has been granted Recognised Seasonal Employer (RSE) status and want to recruit overseas workers under the RSE Scheme, you need to complete this form to obtain an Agreement to Recruit (ATR) from Immigration New Zealand (INZ).

The term 'overseas worker' is used throughout this form. This term has the same meaning as 'non-New Zealand citizen or residence class visa holder worker' as used in RSE instructions.

The term 'business' is used in some places in this form. This term refers to the business of the RSE who is applying for an ATR.

Agreement to Recruit (ATR)

An ATR is an approval for an RSE to employ workers, who are not New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders, at times where high demand exceeds the available New Zealand workforce for the horticulture and viticulture industries. Before an ATR is granted, INZ must be satisfied that there are no suitable New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders available and willing to work in the seasonal horticulture and viticulture positions that the RSE needs to fill. The availability of New Zealanders will be assessed in consultation with the Ministry of Social Development (MSD).

Obtaining an ATR is step two in a four-step process to employ overseas seasonal labour in the horticulture and viticulture industries.

RSE process

STEP 1:

Recognised Seasonal Employer (RSE)

Employer applies for recognition as an RSE. Validity: two years. A further application must be made prior to the end of this period. RSE status may be granted for

STEP 2: Agreement to Recruit (ATR)

Employer with RSE status applies for an agreement to recruit workers from offshore.

Validity: one seasonal period.

STEP 3: Visa application

Prospective worker with an offer of employment linked to an ATR applies for a visa offshore.

Step 4: Following season

Options for the overseas worker to return to New Zealand next season if conditions are met, and:

- they have complied with all immigration requirements, and
- there is a continued labour shortage present, and
- a new Agreement to Recruit is obtained.

ATR requirements

An ATR will only be granted where:

- the employer has RSE status, and
- all reasonable steps have been taken by the employer to recruit and train New Zealanders for the positions available before seeking an approval to recruit overseas workers, and
- INZ is satisfied with the employer's case for requiring an ATR, and
- satisfactory evidence is provided of an agreement with a third party, where the business intends to recruit workers to undertake work at the worksite of a third party (such as a grower or packhouse operator), and
- INZ is satisfied that the employer will satisfactorily address the following pastoral care and health and safety requirements:
 - Transportation to and from the port of arrival and departure.
 - An induction programme.
 - Suitable accommodation.
 - Transportation to and from worksites.
 - · Access to personal banking.
 - Access to acceptable medical insurance.
 - Provision of personal protective equipment.
 - Provision of onsite facilities (toilets, hand washing, first aid, shelter, fresh drinking water).
 - Necessary language translation.
 - Opportunity for recreation and religious observance.
- INZ is satisfied that the RSE worker accommodation will not exacerbate residential rental housing pressures. Residential accommodation must be owned by the employer and/or purpose built for use by horticulture and viticulture workers if located in Auckland (including Upper Auckland), Marlborough, Nelson/Tasman, Northland and Otago). In addition, residential accommodation purchased by the employer after 26 September 2019 cannot be used as RSE worker accommodation in the Bay of Plenty and the Hawke's Bay due to higher housing pressures in these regions. These housing restrictions do not apply to accommodation included in an ATR approved before 26 September 2019.

Before an ATR will be granted, INZ must be satisfied that the RSE will:

- comply with the ATR conditions
- provide all prospective overseas workers with a written employment agreement that meets RSE instructions requirements
- comply with the terms and conditions of the employment agreements
- comply with the minimum remuneration requirements (including payment of half the return airfare between New Zealand and the worker's country of residence), sick leave and pay deductions requirements that are set out in RSE instructions
- pay to the Ministry of Business, Innovation & Employment (MBIE) any costs reasonably incurred by MBIE, to a maximum of NZ$3,000 per worker, in relation to the repatriation (including any maintenance and accommodation) of any overseas worker who requires repatriation as a result of a breach of terms and conditions of their RSE limited visa
- comply with any request from MBIE to audit the business against RSE instructions, the conditions of the ATR, and employment agreements
- disclose, on request, to representatives of MBIE all payments received from RSE workers (including payments for airfares, accommodation and other pastoral care)
- inform MBIE of the expected departure date of the overseas workers once bookings for outward flights have been made, and
- arrange, but not necessarily pay for, acceptable medical insurance for the overseas workers for the duration of their stay in New Zealand, as set out in the RSE instructions.

INZ may approve fewer overseas workers, or a lesser period of work, than requested where it is not satisfied that the number of people requested in the ATR application is appropriate for the work required or the number of people exceeds the forecast labour shortage for the region and period requested.

INZ will take into consideration the needs of the horticulture and viticulture industries as a whole when determining an ATR application and the number of workers which may be approved, to ensure that no particular region, crop or season is disadvantaged.

Any other supporting documentation to verify a regional labour shortage will be considered.

Key points for employment agreements

Employment agreements must:

- be in writing
- be consistent with the terms of the ATR
- be for employment in planting, maintaining, harvesting, or packing crops in the horticulture or viticulture industries
- be for a period of no more than seven months (or nine months if the workers are citizens and residents of Tuvalu or Kiribati)
- comply with all relevant New Zealand employment law
- state that the employer will pay for half of the return airfare between New Zealand and the worker's country of residence (or half the return airfare between New Zealand and Nadi, Fiji, for workers from Kiribati and Tuvalu).
- ensure that workers will be paid no less than the market rate (which is the typical rate a New Zealand citizen or residence class visa holder is paid for doing the equivalent work, in the same period, in the same region) for actual hours worked
- specify a 'per hour' rate for the work to be performed by the worker, and where piece rates apply, also specify the piece rate(s), and
- comply with the following minimum remuneration, sick leave and pay deductions requirements.

Note: for the purposes of this instructions, the return airfare is defined as the total cost of travel from the worker's country of residence (or from Nadi (Fiji) for a worker who is a citizen of Tuvalu or Kiribati) to New Zealand and back, including all associated taxes and fees.

Minimum remuneration requirements

The minimum remuneration requirement for employment agreements that are for a period of six weeks or longer, is the greater of the following amounts:

- payment for 240 hours at the 'per hour' rate, regardless of the actual availability of work, or
- payment for a minimum of 30 hours per week at the 'per hour' rate for the period worked.

The minimum remuneration requirement for employment agreements that are for a period of less than six weeks, is payment for 40 hours per week, at the "per hour" rate, over the period of work offered in the employment agreement, regardless of the actual availability of work.

For more information on the remuneration requirements, see www.immigration.govt.nz/wages

Pay deduction requirements

Any pay deductions must:

- comply with relevant New Zealand employment legislation
- be freely consented to (in writing) by the worker
- be for a specified purpose and for actual, reasonable, verifiable expenses, and
- be no greater than deductions from New Zealanders (in comparable circumstances), and the business must submit the proposed pay deduction arrangements to INZ for approval with this application. Any subsequent proposed changes to the pay deduction arrangements must be submitted to INZ for approval in advance of the changes taking effect.

For comprehensive information on all employment agreement requirements (including minimum remuneration, sick leave and pay deduction requirements) see WH1.20 in the INZ Operational Manual available on our website www.immigration.govt.nz/opsmanual

Where to recruit from

If a business is granted an ATR, it will be able to recruit a set number of overseas workers from the Pacific nations listed below.

Citizens of the Pacific nations listed, who are also normally resident in one of those countries, and who are aged 18 years or over, may be granted a limited visa if they hold an acceptable job offer, hold a return ticket to their home country, meet health and character requirements and meet the requirements for a bona fide applicant.

| RSE Instructions Pacific Nations | | | |
|----------------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------|--|
| Federated States of Micronesia | Palau | Solomon Islands | |
| Fiji | Papua New Guinea | Tonga | |
| Kiribati | Republic of Marshall Islands | Tuvalu | |
| Nauru | Samoa | Vanuatu | |

In circumstances where the employer cannot recruit overseas workers from the nations listed in the table above, they may be granted an agreement to recruit overseas workers from other countries if the RSE:

- was unsuccessful in recruitment after reasonable attempts to recruit from the nations listed above, or
- has pre-established employment relationships with workers who are not citizens of the nations listed above, or
- can provide reasonable grounds why it is not feasible to recruit from the nations listed above.

When assessing whether an employer has made genuine and reasonable attempts to recruit from the eligible Pacific nations, INZ will require evidence that such attempts to recruit have been made, such as a written communication from a national RSE officer stating that they have been consulted and agree that employing workers from the Pacific nations is not feasible in the circumstances.

When assessing whether an employer has a pre-established employment relationship with workers who are not citizens of the eligible Pacific nations listed above, INZ will consider a variety of factors. The factors will include: the number of workers employed from each country relative to the total number of workers employed by the business, the number of previous occasions on which workers have been recruited from these countries, the length of time for which these workers were employed, and whether the employer has made a substantial investment in establishing formal training opportunities or recruitment processes with workers or communities within these countries.

Any ATR application to recruit outside the Pacific nations listed above must be accompanied by a written request stating the country/countries that the employer wants to recruit from and supporting evidence documenting why they have not been able to recruit workers from the Pacific.

Applications for reconsideration

There is no statutory right of appeal against a decision by INZ to decline an application for an ATR; however, INZ may reconsider a decline decision if the employer provides new information and does so promptly.

Rescinding an employer's RSE status

RSE status may be rescinded if there is any breach of RSE or ATR requirements, or commitments made by the RSE employer in an undertaking that was made as a requirement of the approved class of worker border exception other than of a minor nature, or if INZ considers an employer's conduct has created an unacceptable risk to the integrity of New Zealand's immigration or employment laws or policies. Where an employer's RSE status has been rescinded, INZ will not approve any further applications for RSE status from the employer that are made within one year from the date their RSE status was rescinded.

Checklist of required documents

'Section H: Evidence required' includes a checklist of the documents that are required to be submitted with this application for an ATR.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, INZ will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

Work entitlement

It is an offence under the Immigration Act 2009 to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work through INZ's online VisaView system. For more information or to register please visit www.immigration.govt.nz/visaview. Disclosure of information through VisaView is authorised by legislation.

Section G Employer requirements

G1 If granted an ATR, will the business comply with all of the conditions of the ATR?

Yes No

Will the business provide all prospective overseas workers with a written employment agreement that meets the requirements set out in RSE instructions?

Yes No

Will the business ensure that the terms and conditions of the employment agreements offered to prospective overseas workers are the same (or more beneficial to the worker) as the sample agreement provided with this ATR application?

Yes No

Will the business comply with the minimum remuneration requirements, sick leave and pay deductions requirements as set out in RSE instructions, and the requirement to pay for half the return airfare between New Zealand and the worker's country of residence (or half the return airfare between New Zealand and Nadi, Fiji, for workers from Kiribati and Tuvalu)? Note: for the purposes of these instructions, the return airfare is defined as the total cost of travel from the worker's country of residence (or from Nadi (Fiji) for a worker who is a citizen of Tuvalu or Kiribati) to New Zealand and back, including all associated taxes and fees.

Yes No

Will the business pay to the Ministry of Business, Innovation & Employment (MBIE) any costs reasonably incurred by MBIE, to a maximum of NZ$3,000 per worker, in relation to the repatriation (including any maintenance and accommodation) of any overseas worker who requires repatriation as a result of a breach of the terms and conditions of their RSE limited visa?

Yes No

Will the business comply with any request from MBIE to audit the business against RSE instructions, the conditions of the ATR and employment agreements?

Yes No

Will the business disclose on request, to representatives of MBIE, all payments received from RSE workers (including payments for airfares, accommodation and other pastoral care)?

Yes No

Will the business inform MBIE of the expected departure date of the overseas workers once bookings for outward flights have been made?

Yes No

Will the business arrange acceptable medical insurance for the overseas workers for the duration of their stay in New Zealand?

Yes No

Section H Evidence required

Provide the following evidence that is required to assist in assessing this application for an ATR.

Sample employment agreement

A sample employment agreement that will be offered to overseas workers and meets the requirements set out in RSE instructions must be provided.

Deductions

Details of any proposed pay deduction arrangements.

Recruitment outside the Pacific

If you answered 'yes' to question by you must provide:

- evidence to confirm that after reasonable attempts to recruit workers from the eligible Pacific nations the business was not successful (such as written communication from a national RSE officer stating that they have been consulted and agree that employing people from the Pacific is not feasible in the circumstance), or
- evidence of pre-established relationships with workers from outside the eligible Pacific nations.

When determining whether an RSE has a pre-established employment relationship with workers who are not from the eligible Pacific nations, the factors that will be considered include:

- the number of workers employed from each country relative to the total number of workers employed by the business
- the number of previous occasions on which workers have been recruited from these countries
- the length of time for which these workers were employed, and
- whether the RSE has made a substantial investment in establishing formal training opportunities or recruitment processes with workers or communities within these countries, or
- evidence of reasonable grounds for why it is not feasible to recruit from the Pacific nations listed on page 3, and
- an accompanying written request stating the country/countries from which the business wants to recruit.

When determining a pre-established employment relationship, INZ will not take into consideration previous employment agreements entered into with workers holding visas granted under Seasonal Work Visa Instructions, or Working Holiday Scheme Instructions, or Transitioning to Recognised Seasonal Employer Instructions, or Supplementary Seasonal Employer Instructions, or on the basis of a Variation of Conditions to a visitor visa.

Housing Requirements

For the accommodation stated at [F1]:

- if the accommodation is employer owned, you must provide evidence of ownership (including date of purchase if accommodation is located in the Bay of Plenty or Hawke's Bay); or
- · if the accommodation is not employer owned, you must provide evidence that the accommodation meets the housing requirements, for example evidence of rental agreement or similar, booking information, or council consent information (if purpose built for horticulture and viticulture workers).

Contractual services

If you answered 'yes' to question [83] you must provide evidence of contracts for service that the business holds with third parties.

Letter of Guarantee

A written Letter of Guarantee must be provided which states that the business will pay MBIE any associated repatriation costs reasonably incurred by MBIE, to a maximum of NZ$3000 per worker, as a result of the repatriation of an overseas worker, recruited under the RSE Instructions, who breaches the terms and conditions of his/her limited visa. Note: the form for this guarantee "Repatriation Agreement" is available at: www.immigration.govt.nz/employ-migrants/hire-a-candidate/employer-criteria/ recognised-seasonal-employer/apply-atr

Regional labour shortage

You may supply any further supporting documents to verify a regional labour shortage.

Section I Declaration by employer

I understand the questions in, and contents of, this form and I declare the information I have provided is true and correct.

I consent to INZ seeking information concerning the business's compliance with New Zealand's immigration and employment laws and the business's commitment to recruit and train New Zealanders from any records held by MBIE.

I understand that if I make any false statements or provide any false or misleading information, or have changed or altered this form in any material way after it has been signed, I may be committing an offence and I may be imprisoned.

I have included the completed written Letter of Guarantee in the required form that the business will pay MBIE any associated repatriation costs reasonably incurred by MBIE, to a maximum of NZ$3,000 per worker, as a result of the repatriation of an overseas worker, recruited under the RSE instructions, who breaches the terms and conditions of his/her limited visa. Note: the form for this guarantee "Repatriation Agreement" is available at: www.immigration.govt.nz/employ-migrants/ hire-a-candidate/employer-criteria/recognised-seasonal-employer/apply-atr

I consent to INZ consulting with the Ministry of Social Development to determine if seasonal shortages exist in the location and jobs that I have requested approval to recruit for.

I authorise INZ to make any enquiries it deems necessary in respect of the documents or information provided in respect of this application, and to share information provided about me or the business with other government agencies for the purposes of RSE instructions.

I understand that the information provided in this form may be used by MBIE for in-house research purposes.

I agree to comply with reasonable requests from MBIE for additional information that may be required for research purposes, eg by taking part in a survey.

Note: this form must be signed by a person who has authority to make representations and enter into legally binding agreements on behalf of the business.

MSD ATR Consultation Form Recognised Seasonal Employer

Accessing workers from overseas for the horticulture/viticulture sector

RSE employers please complete sections A, B and D.

TO BE COMPLETED BY RSE UNIT (OFFICE USE ONLY)

From: (Agency)

(Name)

To: Ministry of Social Development

Date:

Information for MSD

Response required within 10 working days

Please complete this form with your findings, assessment and conclusion as to whether the employer below has done adequate preseason labour planning in pursuit of obtaining RSE accreditation, along with any information on joint ATRs.

The Recognised Seasonal Employer (RSE) whose details are listed below has applied to Immigration New Zealand (INZ) for an Agreement to Recruit (ATR).

Relevant details of the ATR application have been provided in order for the Ministry of Social Development (MSD) to provide comment on the Immigration instructions that stipulate (amongst other things) that an ATR will only be granted where:

- the appropriate regional Work and Income office(s) has been advised of the RSE's vacancies, and
- INZ, in consultation with MSD, is satisfied that there are not suitable New Zealand citizen or resident workers available to undertake the work.

To aid us in making this assessment we would appreciate you filling out the relevant sections of this form. If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me via phone or email.

This form contains information to be used for immigration purposes only. In particular, the information is to be used in determining whether an employer has a demonstrable commitment to recruiting and training New Zealanders, and assessing the availability of suitable New Zealand citizens and resident workers to fill the available positions.

The information provided in this form must not be used for any other purpose and must not be forwarded by the recipient to any other persons or agencies other than the appropriate MSD and INZ branches. Any information provided in this form may be presented to the applicant for comment.
