INZ 1163

Investor Plus (Investor 1 Category) Application for Residence

Use the guide to help you complete the application form

Please read the Investor Plus (Investor 1 Category) Guide (INZ 1162) before you complete this application form. The guide contains helpful information about how to complete the application form, and gives detailed information about the evidence and documents you need to provide.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

When filling in this form, please print clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

Section M Declaration

The principal applicant, any partner and dependent children aged 18 years and over who are included in this application must agree to the following terms and conditions and sign the declaration space below. Please ensure you understand the declarations below before you sign and agree to them.

I understand that if I make any false statements, or provide any false or misleading information, or have changed or altered this form in any material way after it has been signed, my application for residence may be declined, and I may lose any right of appeal of the decision to decline the application. I may become liable for deportation. I may also be committing an offence and I may be imprisoned.

I have provided true and correct answers to the questions in this form.

I have listed all my family members, including any adopted by law or by custom and my grandparents or legal guardians (if any) if both my parents are deceased, and understand that the non-declaration of any family members may result in that family member not being recognised as part of my family in future applications.

I will inform Immigration New Zealand of any relevant fact or change of circumstances that may: (i) affect the decision on my application for a visa, or (ii) affect the decision to grant entry permission based on the visa for which I am applying.

I declare that there are no matters or warrants outstanding, or investigations of any kind, which could have any current or future effect on the assessment of my good character, or the good character of any other persons included in this application.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to make any enquiries it deems necessary regarding the information provided on this form and/or accompanying documentation, and to share this information with other government agencies (including overseas agencies) to the extent necessary to make decisions about my immigration status.

I authorise any agency whether in New Zealand or overseas, including but not limited to border or immigration agencies, education providers, financial institutions, foreign embassies, government authorities, healthcare providers, police or other law enforcement agencies, that holds information (including personal information) related to information on this form and/or accompanying documentation to disclose that information to Immigration New Zealand.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to provide information about my health and my immigration status to any health service agency. I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my health to Immigration New Zealand.

I accept that any advice given to me by Immigration New Zealand before submitting this application was intended to assist me, and acting on that does not mean that any later application for residence will be granted.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return my application.

Should my residence application be approved, I understand that my resident visa will be subject to the conditions imposed under section 49(1) of the Immigration Act 2009 for three years. These conditions will be that I retain the investment in New Zealand for three years and meet the minimum time in New Zealand requirements.

I declare that the funds I have nominated in this application were lawfully earned or acquired and that I will transfer them to New Zealand according to the requirements of the Migrant Investment Instructions.

Section O Declaration by person assisting the applicant

This section must be completed and signed by the applicant’s immigration adviser, or by any person who has assisted the applicant by providing immigration advice, explaining, translating, or filling in the form for the applicant. If the applicant does not have an immigration adviser, and no one helped the applicant to fill in this form, this section does not have to be completed.

If you are unlicensed when you should be licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007, Immigration New Zealand will return your client’s application. It is an offence to provide immigration advice without holding a licence.

For more information, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, or email info@iaa.govt.nz or write to them at PO Box 6222, Wellesley Street, Auckland 1141, New Zealand.

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for residence in New Zealand. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies (as you have agreed in the declaration).

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent.

Other documents you may wish to send

You may wish to send other documents or information so that we can consider it with this application. Send photocopies only (not original documents), as these documents will not be returned to you. If we need to see an original document, you will be asked to produce it later.
