Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application. For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

When filling in this form, please write clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

Section K  Declaration

This section must be signed by the principal applicant and any partner and dependent children aged 18 years and over who are included in the application. Make sure you understand the declarations below before you sign them.

I understand that if I make any false statements or provide any false or misleading information, or have changed or altered this form in any material way after it has been signed, my application for residence may be declined, and I may lose any right of appeal of the decision to decline the application. I may become liable for deportation. I may also be committing an offence and I may be imprisoned.

I understand the notes and questions in this form and I declare the information given about myself, my partner, and any children is true and complete.

I declare that I have listed all my family members including any adopted by custom and my grandparents or legal guardians (if any) if both my parents are deceased, and understand that the non-declaration of any family members may result in that family member not being recognised as part of my family in future applications.

I declare that I will inform INZ of any relevant fact or change of circumstances that may (i) affect the decision on my application for a visa, or (ii) affect the decision to grant entry permission based on the visa for which I am applying.

I declare that there are no matters or warrants outstanding, or investigations of any kind, which could have any current or future effect on the assessment of my good character or the good character of any other persons included in this application.

I declare that there are no matters or warrants outstanding, or investigations of any kind, which could have any current or future effect on the assessment of my good character or the good character of any other persons included in this application.

I authorise INZ to make any enquiries it deems necessary in respect of the information provided on this form and/or accompanying documentation, and to share information about me with other government agencies (including overseas agencies) and also with the Edmund Hillary Fellowship to the extent necessary to make decisions about my immigration status.

I authorise any agency whether in New Zealand or overseas, including but not limited to border or immigration agencies, education providers, financial institutions, foreign embassies, government authorities, healthcare providers, police or other law enforcement agencies, that holds information (including personal information) related to information on this form and/or accompanying documentation to disclose that information to INZ.

I authorise INZ to provide information about my state of health and my immigration status to any health service agency.

I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my state of health to INZ.

I accept that any advice given to me by INZ before lodging this application was intended to assist me and acting on that does not mean that my application for residence will be granted.

I understand that INZ may provide information about my entitlement to work to potential employers via the online VisaView system. VisaView is authorised by legislation.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, INZ will return my application.

I understand that in order to work in certain occupations in New Zealand registration is required by law. I accept that the grant of a visa does not guarantee that registration will be granted.

I agree that information about my personal resources and the contents of this form may be provided to the Ministry of Social Development if I apply for an emergency benefit. I understand that I will need to give a copy of this declaration to the Ministry of Social Development if I apply for an emergency benefit.

I understand that I am not entitled to an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship, or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship from the Ministry of Social Development for the first 24 months of my residence in New Zealand unless I can show that I am in hardship. I also understand that if I apply for an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship, or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship, that I will need to show that I cannot support myself and my dependents before any application for emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship, or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship is considered. I understand that my application for an emergency benefit, unemployment benefit on grounds of hardship, or sickness benefit on grounds of hardship may be declined if I have deprived myself of income or property, by gift or any other method.

Should my application be approved I agree to participate in an evaluation of the Business Immigration categories for a period of up to five years after the approval of my application. I agree to inform INZ of any changes to my postal/contact address within five years from the date of approval for the purpose of participating in the aforementioned evaluation.

Section M  Declaration by person assisting the applicant

This section must be completed and signed by the applicant’s immigration adviser, or by any person who has assisted the applicant by providing immigration advice, explaining, translating, or recording information on the form for the applicant. If the applicant does not have an immigration adviser, and no one helped the applicant to fill in this form, this section does not have to be completed.

If you are not exempt under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007, it is an offence for you to provide immigration advice without holding a license, and Immigration New Zealand will refuse to accept your client’s application. More information about immigration adviser licensing can be obtained from the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, via email info@iaa.govt.nz or by telephone on 0508 422 422.

About the information you provide

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a residence class visa. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person’s entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand’s online VisaView system. VisaView is authorised by legislation.

If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information via VisaView you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand.

We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies when it is legally required or permissible or with other agencies (as you have agreed in the declaration).

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary.

The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent.
