About the Global Impact Permanent Residence Category

The objective of the Global Impact Visa programme is to attract talented innovative entrepreneurs, investors and start-up teams who have the drive and capabilities to create and support innovation-based ventures in New Zealand. The Global Impact Permanent Residence Category is available for applicants who currently hold a Global Impact Work Visa supported by the Edmund Hillary Fellowship (EHF).

Applicants may apply for permanent residency after having held their Global Impact work visa for at least 30 months and while their Global Impact work visa is still valid. To qualify for the Permanent Resident visa applicants must meet the following requirements:

• Hold a valid Global Impact Work visa;
• Have held their Global Impact work visa for at least 30 months;
• Have the ongoing support of the Edmund Hillary Fellowship;
• have not, at any time since the grant of their visa, applied for, or been granted welfare assistance under the Social Security Act 1964.
• Meet health and character requirements for residency.

Partners and dependent children may be included as secondary applicants under the Global Impact Permanent Residence application, subject to meeting the generic residency requirements for partners and dependent children, as well as health and character requirements for residency.

This guide is intended to help you complete your Global Impact Permanent Residence Application (INZ 1247) correctly. It explains the evidence you must provide when applying for permanent residence.

Documents

Certified copies

All documents should be either originals or certified copies. If you send certified copies, Immigration New Zealand may ask for originals at a later date. Certified copies are photocopies that have been stamped or endorsed by a person who confirms that the copy is a true copy of the original. The person who certifies the copy must be authorised to do so by law in your home country or in New Zealand (e.g. a Justice of the Peace, notary public, lawyer or Court official).

Translations

If any of your documents are not in English, you must have them translated into English. Any translation provided must:

• be accompanied by the original documents or certified copies; and
• not be made by you, any of your family members or an immigration adviser assisting with your application; and
• be certified as a correct translation made by a person familiar with both languages and competent in translation work; and
• be on the official letterhead of the translation business (if applicable); and
• have the stamp or signature of the translator or translation business; and
• be paid for by you.

Translations may be prepared by:

• the Translation Service of the New Zealand Department of Internal Affairs; or
• reputable people within the community who are known to translate documents accurately; or
• embassies or high commissions (if the translation is endorsed with the appropriate embassy or high commission seal); or
• any other private or official translation business.

If you are considering applying for New Zealand citizenship at a later date you may want to have your documents translated by the Translation Service of the Department of Internal Affairs. For details see www.dia.govt.nz.
Importing your car, boat, and/or household items

You may be able to bring your car, boat, and/or household items to New Zealand free of Customs charges. For detailed information on restrictions, and to find out if you must pay Customs charges, see the New Zealand Customs Service website www.customs.govt.nz. For enquiries, email feedback@customs.govt.nz, or telephone:
  • 0800 428 786 (within New Zealand)
  • +64 9 300 5399 (outside New Zealand).

VisaView

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person’s entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand’s online VisaView system. VisaView is authorised by legislation.

If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information via VisaView you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.

New Zealand Business Number

You must indicate the New Zealand Business Number (NZBN) of all New Zealand businesses included in the form. For help, you can go to www.nzbn.govt.nz

Additional information

Make sure you keep us informed of any change in your circumstances or in the information you have provided. You may provide additional information or documents after your application has been accepted for consideration, but you must do so before we make our final decision. Once a final decision has been made on your application, we won’t accept any further information or documents.

Contact details

B3 Name and address for correspondence or adviser details.

You can apply for residence by completing and submitting the application form yourself or you can ask another person – such as a friend, lawyer, or immigration adviser – to help you. (We refer to people who help you in this way as your ‘agent’, ‘adviser’ or ‘representative’.)

We give all applicants equal treatment so you are free to choose whether or not to use an agent, adviser or representative. Our website, www.immigration.govt.nz, has lots of information about migrating to and settling in New Zealand and also provides links to other services that may be able to help you.

Please be aware of the following if you do decide to use an agent, adviser or representative.

- You can give your own address or your agent’s, adviser’s or representative’s address as our point of contact. However, there may be times when we want to work directly with you.
- If you give your adviser’s address, we will send them all correspondence about your application, including notices for interviews and original documents.
- If you stop using the services of your agent, adviser or representative, or hire a new one, you will need to tell us in writing or we will continue to deal with them. If you are changing your immigration adviser, please use the form Immigration Adviser Details (INZ 1160).
- You are responsible for any documents or information you submit with your application as well as any information that your agent, adviser or representative submits on your behalf.

If anybody else helps you to complete the form – by interpreting, translating, or filling it in for you, for example – they must also sign ‘Section O: Declaration by person assisting the applicant’.

Completing Section D
Partner’s personal details

D10 Minimum requirements for recognition of partnerships

You can include your partner in your application, but for your partner to be granted residence as part of your application you must:

- have been living together in a genuine and stable relationship for at least 12 months, and
- both be aged 18 years or older (or have parental/guardian consent if either of you are aged 16 or 17 years), and
- not be close relatives according to Schedule 2 of the Marriage Act 1955 or Schedule 2 of the Civil Union Act 2004 (these Acts are available on the internet at www.legislation.govt.nz).

Evidence that you and your partner are living together may include (but is not limited to) original or certified copies of documents showing shared accommodation such as:

- joint ownership of residential property
- joint tenancy agreement or rent book or rental receipts
- correspondence (including postmarked envelopes) addressed to both you and your partner at the same address.
If you and your partner have been living separately for any period during your relationship, you should provide evidence of the length of the periods of separation, the reasons for them, and how your relationship was maintained during the periods of separation. Such evidence may include letters, itemised telephone accounts or email messages.

Evidence that your partnership is genuine and stable may include (but is not limited to) original or certified copies of documents such as:
- your marriage certificate
- birth certificates of any children you have had together
- evidence of communication between you both

- documents indicating public recognition of your partnership

  - shared income

  - joint assets
  - joint liabilities such as loans or credit to purchase real estate, cars, major home appliances
  - joint utilities accounts (electricity, gas, water, telephone)
  - mutually agreed financial arrangements.

Completing Section F
Dependent children

You can include your children and your partner’s children in your application if they are single and aged 17 or younger; or are single, aged between 18 and 24 years of age (inclusive), and have no children of their own. They must be either totally or substantially reliant on you and/or your partner for financial support, whether or not they are living with you or your partner.

Your partner’s children cannot be approved for residence unless you and your partner are able to meet the minimum requirements for the recognition of partnerships (see note regarding D10 above).

Passport details

If your child(ren) does not have a passport, but is named in (and will travel on) another person’s passport, please state the passport number and the name of that other person when completing the ‘passport number’ question for the child(ren).

Evidence of relationship to your children

To prove your relationship to your and/or your partner’s children, please include their full birth certificates showing your name and/or your partner's name as well as the child’s name. If you have an adopted child, you must provide evidence of the adoption, whether it is a legal or a customary adoption.

Evidence of a legal adoption is original or certified copies of adoption papers from the country in which the adoption was approved.
Evidence of a customary adoption is a written declaration by you, the adoptive parent, stating:

• that you have adopted the child, and
• the date of the adoption, and
• the country in which the adoption took place.

We may seek confirmation of a customary adoption from the child’s biological parents.

Custody arrangements

Make sure that you complete this question.

If you are separated or divorced and will bring any children under 16 years of age to New Zealand with you, you must provide evidence that you are legally allowed to remove the children from any country in which rights of custody or visitation have been granted to the other parent or any other person. If the other parent of any accompanying children under 16 years of age is not included in your application for residence, you must provide evidence of your right to remove the children from their country of residence.

Evidence that you have the right to remove children from their country of residence includes:

• legal documents showing you have custody of the child, and the sole right to decide where they live, without any visitation rights being granted to the other parent; or
• a Court order permitting you to remove the child from their country of residence; or
• legal documents showing you have custody of the child, and a signed statement from the child’s other parent – witnessed in accordance with local practice or law – which confirms that they agree to allow the child to live in New Zealand if your residence application is approved.

Completing Section G  Character requirements

G2 Every person aged 17 years and over applying for residence in New Zealand must provide:

• a police certificate from their country of citizenship (unless they can provide satisfactory evidence they have never lived there)
• police certificates from any country they have lived in for 12 months or more in the last 10 years, including countries where their stay has been broken by short departures.

For information on how to obtain a police certificate visit www.immigration.govt.nz/policecertificate. Accessing the website is the quickest means of obtaining this information, however if you do not have access to the internet you can call us on 0508 55 88 55.

G6 If you have been removed, deported or excluded from any country, you may not meet character requirements and may not be eligible to be granted a visa. You must declare if you have been removed, deported or excluded from any country, excluding New Zealand.

Completing Section H  Fit and proper person requirements

H1 Any laws enforced by countries where the business operates or is registered are relevant to the assessment of business compliance.
Completing Section I  Health requirements

You and your family need to be in good health to be approved permanent residence under the Global Impact Permanent Residence Category. The questions in this section apply to every person who is included in your application.

If you have a partner or dependent child who is eligible for inclusion in your residence application and you choose not to include them, or withdraw them from your application before it is approved, you need to be aware of the implications that this will have on any future visa application made by them. If you are granted a permanent resident visa, should your partner or dependent child apply for a residence class visa or temporary entry class visa in the future as your partner or dependent child, they will be required to complete a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007) rather than the Limited Medical Certificate (INZ 1201), which is the medical certificate for partners and dependent children of New Zealand citizens and residents. If at the time your partner or dependent child applies for a visa, an immigration officer determines that they do not have an acceptable standard of health, they will not be granted a medical waiver.

I1 You (and any other applicant included in your application) may be required to provide a completed General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007) and a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096), unless you have previously provided these certificates and they were issued less than 36 months ago.

I2 If you (and any other applicant included in your application) have provided a medical certificate and chest X-ray certificate within the last 36 months, you do not need to provide further certificates unless:

- the health status of any applicant has deteriorated since their previous certificates were issued, or
- you have been requested in writing by an immigration officer to provide updated certificates; or
- any applicant included in your application has spent six consecutive months since their last chest X-ray certificate was issued, in a country, area or territory not listed as having a low incidence of TB (see the leaflet Health Requirements (INZ 1121) for further information).

If you (and any other applicant included in your application) are required to provide a medical certificate or chest X-ray certificate, they must be less than three months old when we receive your application.

Note: Pregnant women and children under 11 years of age are not required to have an X-ray, unless a special report is required.

If you (and any other applicant included in your application) are completing these certificates outside of New Zealand, in most countries we require the medical examinations to be carried out by one of a selected panel of medical practitioners or institutions. The details of these countries and the names and addresses of the approved panels are listed on our website. Alternatively you can contact your closest INZ office.

I3 If you answer ‘yes’ to any of these questions, make sure you provide a full explanation of your circumstances so we can assess your medical condition(s). The purpose of the questions at I3 and I4 is to find out whether you may have a medical condition for which a medical waiver cannot be granted.

The special education services referred to in I5 are for situations where a child requires a specialist teacher and/or other specialists such as a speech language therapist, an occupation therapist, a physiotherapist, and an educational psychologist to assist with their education.

You can find more details about our health requirements and medical waivers in our leaflet Health Requirements (INZ 1121).
To be approved permanent residence under the Global Impact category you must:

- hold a Global Impact Work visa
- have held a Global Impact Work visa for at least 30 months
- have complied with the conditions of that visa
- have confirmation of support from the Edmund Hillary Fellowship for your visa application and continued participation in the Edmund Hillary Fellowship; and
- not have applied for, or been granted welfare assistance in New Zealand since the granting of your Global Impact Work visa

The declaration must be signed by you and any partner and dependent children aged 18 years and over who are included in your application. It is your responsibility to ensure that you and everyone included in your application understand the declarations before you sign.

If you have any questions about the declarations, please contact your nearest Immigration New Zealand office or the Immigration Contact Centre toll free on 0508 55 88 55 (if you are in New Zealand) or on +64 9 914 4100.

If an immigration adviser has assisted you to complete this form then they must complete this section.

Make sure that anyone who has helped you complete the form by explaining, translating, or filling it in, understands and signs the declaration in this section.

You need to pay a fee and immigration levy when you submit your application, unless you are not required to do so. Fee and immigration levy details are listed on our website at www.immigration.govt.nz and in our Fees Guide (INZ 1028). Payment must be in New Zealand dollars. No other currency will be accepted.
