Afghan Emergency Resettlement Category Application for Residence

The Afghan Emergency Resettlement Category is a special permanent resident visa available to Afghan citizens who were assisted, by the New Zealand Government, to evacuate from Afghanistan to New Zealand for the purpose of resettlement in New Zealand.

This form can be used by someone applying for a permanent resident visa under this special category, including someone that already holds a resident visa.

Requirements

You must meet all of the following requirements:

- be a citizen of Afghanistan
- have been in Afghanistan on 15 August 2021
- have entered New Zealand on or after 16 August 2021
- be in New Zealand when you make the application
- be of good character.

You must also meet one of the following three criteria when you entered New Zealand:

1. Held a Critical Purpose Visitor Visa on the basis of assisting a New Zealand Government agency in Afghanistan

People who assisted a New Zealand Government agency in Afghanistan were able to make a request to New Zealand's Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (MFAT) to be resettled in New Zealand. A Critical Purpose Visitor Visa was granted by Immigration New Zealand where it was verified that the person did assist a New Zealand Government agency in Afghanistan, and the person or their immediate family were at risk as a result of their association to New Zealand. Visas were also granted to partners and dependent children of these people. If you held one of these Critical Purpose Visitor Visas when you entered New Zealand, then you may be eligible for a permanent resident visa under this category.

2. Held a Critical Purpose Visitor Visa that was granted between 15 August and 12 September 2021

If you were granted a Critical Purpose Visitor Visa between 15 August 2021 and 12 September 2021 (inclusive), then you may be eligible for a permanent resident visa under this category. The Critical Purpose Visitor Visa may have been granted for any reason, it does not have to be the result of assistance provided to a New Zealand Government agency. You must have held the Critical Purpose Visitor Visa when you entered New Zealand.

3. Travelled to New Zealand by 12 September 2021

If you travelled to New Zealand before 12 September 2021, then you may be eligible for a permanent resident visa under this category. It doesn't matter what type of visa you held when you entered New Zealand, or when that visa was granted.

Partners and dependent children

You can include your partner and any dependent child(ren) in your application. They must also meet the requirements outlined above, but we will not carry out character checks for children under the age of 17.

A partner is someone you are:

- legally married to,
- in a civil union partnership with, or
- in a de facto relationship with.

A dependent child is someone who is:

- your or your partner's biological or adopted child,
- less than 25 years old, and
- totally or substantially reliant on you or your partner for financial support.

A child who is financially independent is still a dependent child if they are:

- 17 years old or younger, and single, or
- 18, 19 or 20 years old, single, and with no children of their own.

Section I Declaration

The principal applicant, any partner and dependent children aged 18 years and over who are included in this application must agree to the following terms and conditions and sign the declaration space below. Please ensure you understand the declarations below before you sign and agree to them.

I understand that if I make any false statements or provide any false or misleading information, or have changed or altered this form in any material way after it has been signed, my application may be declined, and I may lose any right of appeal of the decision to decline the application. I may be required to leave New Zealand. I may also be committing an offence.

I have provided true and correct answers to the questions in this form.

I declare that I provided a full list of my family members in this application (including any children adopted by law or by custom and my grandparents or legal guardians (if any) if both my parents are deceased), and understand that the non-declaration of any family members may result in that family member not being recognised as part of my family in future applications.

I will inform Immigration New Zealand of any relevant fact or change of circumstances that may (i) affect the decision on my application for a visa, or (ii) affect the decision to grant entry permission based on the visa for which I am applying.

I declare that there are no matters or warrants outstanding, or investigations of any kind, which could have any current or future effect on the assessment of my good character, or the good character of any other persons included in this application.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to make any enquiries it deems necessary regarding the information provided on this form and/or accompanying documentation and to share this information with other government agencies to the extent necessary to make decisions about my immigration status.

I authorise any agency whether in New Zealand or overseas, including but not limited to border or immigration agencies, education providers, financial institutions, foreign embassies, government authorities, healthcare providers, police or other law enforcement agencies, that holds information (including personal information) related to information on this form and/or accompanying documentation to disclose that information to Immigration New Zealand.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return my application.

If relevant to my application, I authorise Immigration New Zealand to provide information about my health and my immigration status to any health service agency. If relevant to my application, I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my health to Immigration New Zealand.

About the information you provide

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa.

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to determine your eligibility for permanent residence in New Zealand. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies to the extent necessary to make decisions about your immigration status (as you have agreed in the declaration). In particular, the Ministry of Social Development (Work and Income) may be given information about your personal resources.

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent.
