Migrant Exploitation Protection Work Visa Application

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you are applying for a work visa because:

- you have made a report of exploitation to the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment and it has been assessed as credible that exploitation may have occurred; and
- your current work visa is linked to your employer.

When filling in this form, write clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

Application checklist

All applicants must provide:

Section G Declaration by applicant

I understand the questions and contents of this form and the information I have provided is true and correct.

I understand that if I make any false statements or provide any false or misleading information (including statements or information provided with the report of exploitation), my application may be declined. I may become liable for deportation.

I agree to tell Immigration New Zealand about any changes to my circumstances (including a change in my employment or partnership status) that occur after making this application.

I agree to leave New Zealand before my visa expires. If I remain in New Zealand after my visa has expired, I may be deported by Immigration New Zealand.

I agree that if I am not entitled to free health care in New Zealand, I will pay for any health care or medical assistance I may require in New Zealand.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return my application.

I understand that Immigration New Zealand may provide information about my entitlement to work to potential employers including via the online VisaView system. If I undertake a course of study while in New Zealand, I authorise Immigration New Zealand to provide information about my immigration status to my education provider, including via VisaView.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to provide information about my health and my immigration status to any health service agency. I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my health to Immigration New Zealand.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to make any necessary enquiries about information on this form and/or accompanying documentation. I authorise any agency whether in New Zealand or overseas, including but not limited to border or immigration agencies, education providers, financial institutions, foreign embassies, government authorities, healthcare providers, police or other law enforcement agencies, that holds information (including personal information) related to information on this application form and/or accompanying documentation to disclose that information to Immigration New Zealand so that they can:

- make a decision on this application
- answer enquiries about my immigration status once my application has been decided.

I have provided all the documents required by the checklist on page 1.

H2 If you are exempt from licensing, tick one box below to show why you are exempt from licensing then go to Section I: Declaration by person assisting the applicant.

I provided immigration advice in an informal or family context only, and I did not provide the advice systematically or for a fee.

I have provided immigration advice in the course of my work (employed or volunteer) and that work exempts me from the requirement to be licensed. Indicate the reason for your exemption below.

Lawyer with current New Zealand practicing certificate  Community Law Centre  Citizens Advice Bureau

New Zealand Member of Parliament or staff  New Zealand public servant  Foreign Diplomatic/Consular

i See www.immigration.govt.nz/adviserlicensing for more information about who is exempt from licensing.

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a work visa. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand. We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies (as you have agreed in the declaration). You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent. Sometimes we may ask for additional documents or information so that we can consider it with this application.

Other documents you may wish to send

You may wish to send other documents or information so that we can consider it with this application. Send photocopies only (not original documents), as these documents will not be returned to you. If we need to see an original document, you will be asked to produce it later.

VisaView

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand's online VisaView system. Disclosure of information through VisaView is authorised by legislation.

If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information about you via VisaView, you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.
