R2.1 Effective 30/07/2012

See also Immigration (Visa, Entry Permission, and Related Matters) Regulations 2010, Reg 20

a Each principal applicant (see R2.1.1 below) must make a separate application.

b The following people may be included in a residence class visa application, regardless of whether they are living in the same country as the principal applicant:
   i The partner of a principal applicant (see R2.1.10 below); and ii The biological or adopted (see R3) dependent children of the principal applicant and/or partner (if the partner is included in the application) (see R2.1.30 below).

R2.1.1 Definition of ‘principal applicant’ a The principal applicant is the person who is declared to be the principal applicant on the residence class visa application form.

b When the application is assessed, the principal applicant will be the person first assessed against the criteria in residence instructions, unless the instructions indicate otherwise.

R2.1.5 Definition of ‘applicant’

An applicant is a person included in an application for a residence class visa and includes the principal applicant and secondary applicants (if any). All persons included in an application will be individually assessed against the criteria for the grant of residence in the residence instructions that apply to them.

R2.1.10 Definition of ‘partner’ a For the purpose of inclusion in a residence class visa application, ‘partner’ means a person who:

   i is legally married to the principal applicant; or ii is in a civil union partnership with the principal applicant; or iii is in a de facto relationship with the principal applicant.

b References to ‘partner’ in residence instructions mean ‘partner’ as defined in (a) above.

c A partner who does not meet the criteria in (a) above may not be included in a principal applicant’s application and must apply for residence as a principal applicant in their own right.

R2.1.15 When may partners included in an application be granted a residence class visa?

a For a ‘partner’ included in an application to be granted a residence class visa an immigration officer must be satisfied that they meet ‘partnership’ instructions which are:
   i that the principal applicant and partner are living together in a genuine and stable partnership (see F2.10.1); and ii that the couple have been living together in such a relationship for 12 months or more at the time the application is assessed; and iii that the partnership meets the minimum requirements for the recognition of partnerships set out at F2.15 in that:
o the couple were both aged 18 years or older at the time the application for residence class visa was made, or if aged 16 or 17 years old have the support of their parent(s) or guardian(s); and

o the couple have met prior to the application being made; and o they are not close relatives (see F2.15(d)).

b When assessing if the duration of the partnership requirement in a. ii above is met immigration officers may include any period immediately prior to any marriage where they are satisfied the couple was living together in an interdependent partnership akin to a marriage.

R2.1.15.1 What happens if an immigration officer is not satisfied that a couple are living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable?

If an immigration officer is not satisfied the principal applicant and partner included in the application are living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable, then:

a the partner will not be granted a residence class visa; and b if the principal applicant is reliant on:

i the attributes of their partner included in the application; or ii the family relationship of their partner included in the application those attributes or relationships will not be taken into account when determining eligibility of the principal applicant under residence instructions.

Examples:

~ Under the Skilled Migrant Category (see SM9.5(d)) a principal applicant's partner's skilled employment in New Zealand will not qualify for points.

~ Under the Sibling and Adult Child Category instructions (see F6.1(c)) where a principal applicant and partner included in the application have combined income as evidence of meeting the required minimum income requirement only the principal applicant's income may be taken into account when determining the total family income per year.

R2.1.15.5 What happens if the partnership is considered to be genuine and stable but is less than the 12 months required?

a If an immigration officer is satisfied the principal applicant and partner included in the application are living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable, but the duration of that partnership is less than the 12 months required, then:

i in any case where the grant of a residence class visa to a principal applicant is reliant on the relationship with or attributes of their partner the application must be declined under residence instructions; or ii in any case where the grant of a residence class visa to a principal applicant is not reliant on the relationship with or attributes of their partner the immigration officer may proceed with processing the principal applicant for the residence class visa but defer the final decision on the partner to enable the qualifying period to be met.

b If a partner's application for a residence class visa has been deferred as described in (a)(ii) above they may be granted a work visa (once an application has been made) for a period sufficient to enable the qualifying period to be met and any further assessment of their residence class visa application to be completed (see WF2.20).

R2.1.20 Evidence of relationship with partner

Principal applicants must provide:

a evidence of their relationship with their partner included in the application; and b evidence that their partnership is genuine and stable. (F2.20.15 sets out the types of evidence that are required).

Note: In each case where a person relies on being the partner of a principal applicant for the purposes of inclusion in an application (and subsequent grant of a residence class visa), the onus of proving that the person included is the partner of the principal applicant, that their partnership is genuine and stable, and of the required duration lies with the principal applicant and their partner (see F2.5(c)).

R2.1.25 Polygamous marriages and relationships

As an exception to the exclusivity requirement which forms part of the definition of a genuine and stable partnership (see F2.10) principal applicants in polygamous marriages or relationships (i.e. marriages or relationships with more than one partner) may have only one partner included in their application for a residence class visa.

R2.1.27 When may dependent children be included in an application and be granted a residence class visa?

For a 'dependent child' to be included in an application to be granted a residence class visa, an immigration officer must be satisfied that they are a dependent child.

R2.1.30 Definition of ‘dependent child’

See also Immigration (Visa, Entry Permission, and Related Matters) Regulations 2010, Regs, 4, 20

For the purpose of inclusion in an application, and despite the definition in section 4 of the Immigration Act 2009, a child is dependent if they:

a are:
   i aged 21 to 24, with no child(ren) of their own; and ii single (see F5.5); and iii totally or substantially reliant on the principal applicant and/or the principal applicant’s partner for financial support, whether living with them or not; or b are:

   i aged 18 to 20, with no child(ren) of their own; and ii single (see F5.5); or

c are:
   i aged 17 or younger; and ii single (see F5.5); or

d are applying for a South Island Contribution resident visa and were previously determined to be dependent under WR7.20.1.

e When determining whether a child of 21 to 24 years of age is totally or substantially reliant on the principal applicant and/or the principal applicant’s partner for financial support immigration officers must consider the whole application, taking into account all relevant factors including:
   • whether the child is in paid employment, whether this is full time or part time, and its duration;
   • whether the child has any other independent means of financial support;
   • whether the child is living with its parents or another family member, and the extent to which other support is provided;
   • whether the child is studying, and whether this is full time or part time.

R2.1.35 Evidence of dependence

a Children up to 17 years of age are presumed to be dependent if they are single.
b. Children aged 18 to 20 years of age are presumed to be dependent if they are single and have no child(ren) of their own.

c. For children aged 21 to 24 years of age, evidence of actual dependence may be required.

R2.1.40 Evidence of relationship with dependent children

The principal applicant must provide one of the following documents as evidence of the relationship of the principal applicant and/or partner included in the application with any dependent child included in the application:

a. the birth certificate showing the names of the parent(s); or

b. adoption papers showing that the child has been legally adopted by the principal applicant or partner; or

c. in the case of a child adopted by custom, a declaration by the adoptive parent(s) separate from, and in addition to, any similar declaration made on an application form (see R3.5.1).

R2.1.45 Children under 16 whose parents are separated or divorced

a. If the parents of a child aged under 16 included in an application for a residence class visa are separated or divorced, the applicant parent must have the right to remove the child from the country in which rights of custody or visitation have been granted; or if no such rights have been granted, from the country of residence.

b. Such children cannot be included in an application unless the applicant parent produces satisfactory evidence of their right to remove the child from the country in which the rights of custody or visitation have been granted or if no such rights have been granted, from the country of residence.

c. Except where (d) applies, evidence of the right to remove the child from the country in which rights of custody or visitation have been granted must include:

i. legal documents showing that the applicant has custody of the child and the sole right to determine the place of residence of the child, without rights of visitation by the other parent; or

ii. a court order permitting the applicant to remove the child from its country of residence; or

iii. legal documents showing that the applicant has custody of the child and a signed statement from the other parent, witnessed in accordance with local practice or law, agreeing to allow the child to live in New Zealand if the application is approved.

d. Where an immigration officer is satisfied that:

i. by virtue of local law, the applicant parent has the statutory right to custody of the child; and

ii. it is not possible or required under that local law to obtain individualised legal documents to verify that custodial right, the child may be included in the application.

R2.1.50 Children under 16 with only one parent included in the application for a residence class visa

a. If one of the parents of a child aged under 16 is not included in the application for a residence class visa, the applicant parent must have the right to remove the child from its country of residence.

b. Such children cannot be included in an application unless the applicant parent produces satisfactory evidence of their right to remove the child from its country of residence.

c. Except where (e) applies, evidence of the right to remove the child from its country of residence in cases where one parent is not included in the application for a residence class visa, but the parents are not separated or divorced, must include:

i. a written statement confirmed by both parents at interview; or

ii. a court order permitting the applicant to remove the child from its country of residence.

d. If, because of the death of one of the parents of a child aged under 16, only one parent is included in the application, the death certificate of the other parent must be provided.
The child may be included in the application where an immigration officer is satisfied that:
   i. by virtue of local law, the applicant parent has the statutory right to custody of the child; and

R2.1.55 Situation of dependent of partners included in an application

a. Any dependent child who is reliant on inclusion in an application solely by virtue of being the dependent child of the principal applicant’s partner included in an application (i.e. they are not a child of the principal applicant) may not be granted a residence class visa unless their parent partner is granted a residence class visa.

b. If their parent partner is granted a work visa as provided for in R2.1.15.5 (b) above then they may also be granted a temporary visa of a type appropriate to their needs (once an application has been made) for the same period.

Example: a dependent child intending to attend school in New Zealand must apply for a student visa.

R2.40.1 Mandatory requirements for lodging an online application for a residence class visa
See also Immigration (Visa, Entry Permission, and Related Matters) Regulations 2010, Reg 23A.

a  An application for a residence class visa may be made online if electronic forms have been provided for that purpose by Immigration New Zealand [the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment].
b  The application must be made using the electronic form provided.
c  The electronic form requires the applicant to:
   i  complete the form in English; and ii state his or her full name; and iii state his or her date and place of birth; and iv state the details of his or her passport or certificate of identity; and

R2.40.2 Mandatory requirements for lodging an application for a resident visa at an immigration control area
See also Immigration Act 2009 ss 4, 28
See also Immigration (Visa, Entry Permission, and Related Matters) Regulations 2010, Regs 7, 8 a  An application for a resident visa can be made at an immigration control area by:

   i  an Australian citizen;
   ii a holder of Australian permanent residence visas (including a resident return visa) iii a person who previously held a resident visa.
b  An application for a resident visa made by a person described in (a) at an immigration control area must:
   i  be made on the approved form; and ii relate to only one person; and iii be completed in English; and iv be signed by the applicant, unless the applicant is less than 18 years old, in which case it must be signed by a parent or guardian (if the applicant is accompanied by a parent or guardian), or it is not required to be signed (if the applicant is not accompanied by a parent or guardian); and v be given to an immigration officer together with the applicant’s passport or certificate of identity.
c  A person who meets (a)(i) or (ii) above and is eligible to use the automated electronic system, may meet the requirements at (b)(v) above by giving their passport to the automated electronic system.
R2.40.5 Definition of ‘current’

‘Current’ means, in relation to any document provided in support of an application or Expression of Interest, to meet:

a. mandatory requirements for lodgement of an application; or

b. other evidential requirements of residence instructions, that, at any relevant stage during the life of an application or an Expression of Interest (e.g. at the time an application or Expression of Interest is lodged, during assessment of the application or Expression of Interest and at the date of final decision on an application), that document is not expired.

R2.40.10 Authority to waive mandatory requirements

Immigration officers may only waive those mandatory requirements for which they have delegated authority to make a special direction.

R2.40.15 Requests for applications to be lodged otherwise than on an approved form

See also Immigration (Visa, Entry Permission, and Related Matters) Regulations 2010, Regs 21, 22

a. The Immigration (Visa, Entry Permission, and Related Matters) Regulations 2010 allow for applications to be made otherwise than on the approved form. The purpose of these provisions is to allow for applications for visas to be processed rapidly, where the decision to grant or refuse a visa is straightforward and in an immigration officer’s view any verification requirements are minor in nature.

b. Because of the complex nature of residence class visa applications and the high level of verification required, requests to lodge residence class visa applications otherwise than on the approved form will normally be refused.

R2.40.20 Evidence of identity

a. Mandatory requirements (see R2.40 above) relating to proof of identity require applications to include full birth certificates for every applicant, which usually state:

i. the applicant's name; and

ii. their date of birth; and

iii. their place of birth; and

iv. the names and occupations of their parents.

b. If a full birth certificate is unobtainable, the applicant may submit an identity card.

c. A full birth certificate is considered to be obtainable even if there is a possible delay or expense in obtaining it.

See previous instructions:

See also Immigration (Visa, Entry Permission, and Related Matters) Regulations 2010, regs 5, 7, 8 and 23A.

Before determining the application, an immigration officer processing an application may require the applicant:

a. to appear before an immigration officer for an interview; and/or
b. to produce any other photographs, documents, evidence, and information the officer thinks necessary to help in determining the application; and/or
c. to undergo a further medical examination (unless the applicant previously held a resident visa and is applying for a resident visa at an immigration control area).

Effective 07/05/2018
R2.46 DNA testing for verifying claimed relationships

a DNA testing provides the most reliable evidence of whether or not a claimed biological relationship exists. In certain cases, DNA test evidence will be the only evidence available to satisfy an immigration officer of a claimed relationship because documentary and other evidence of the relationship does not exist or is unreliable.

b In situations where documentation does not exist or is unreliable, an immigration officer may raise the possibility of undertaking DNA testing with the applicant.

c DNA testing is voluntary for applicants and sponsors. If an applicant or sponsor, having been advised of the possibility of DNA testing, decides not to undertake such testing, no adverse inference may be drawn from this decision, and such a decision of itself will not be a reason to decline an application.

d DNA test results must be considered in the context of all other information and evidence relevant to the claimed relationship.

e An immigration officer may accept results of a DNA test as part of an application at any time.

f Only DNA tests carried out by an INZ-approved laboratory in accordance with standard procedures will be accepted as evidence of claimed relationships under these instructions.

g Usually an applicant/sponsor will be expected to pay the costs of the DNA testing used to support the claims in their residence class visa application. On a case by case basis, INZ may consider paying for the DNA test costs.

h Where the applicant/sponsor has accepted an INZ invitation to undertake DNA testing to prove a relationship between an applicant and a sponsor who has obtained residence in New Zealand under the Refugee Quota, the costs of that test will be met by INZ.

i All DNA testing carried out under these instructions is done so in accordance with the Information Privacy Principles of the Privacy Act 1993.

R2.50 Applications not lodged in the prescribed manner

a An application must be returned if it is submitted by an unlicensed immigration adviser (see R2.44) unless they are exempt from licensing.

b Except where the provisions of paragraph (a) above apply, INZ may, at its discretion, hold applications that are not lodged in the prescribed manner (see R2.35 and R2.40) for a specified period of time until any outstanding requirements have been met; but INZ does not consider such applications to have been made.

c INZ is under no obligation to hold an application that is not lodged in the prescribed manner.

d When an application is lodged in an incomplete but minor and easily corrected manner, immigration officers will:

i hold the papers; and ii notify the principal applicant or agent that the application has not been lodged in the prescribed manner but is being held for a limited time to enable the principal applicant or agent to meet the outstanding mandatory requirements; and iii notify the principal applicant or agent of the documents required for the application to meet the mandatory requirements (see R2.40) for lodging an application.

e Where (b) or (d) apply, principal applicants will be given a specified time to complete the outstanding requirements, and if they do not do so, the application may be returned to the principal applicant or agent.

f When an application is not lodged in the prescribed manner and the provisions of paragraphs (b) or (d) above do not apply, the application must be returned to the principal applicant or agent.

R2.55 How to submit documents

See previous instructions:
R2.55 Effective 04/04/2011
R2.55 Effective 29/11/2010

a Unless the application has been made online (R2.40.1), all documents submitted in support of an application for a residence class visa must be originals, or certified copies.
b Certified copies must be stamped or endorsed as being true copies of the originals by a person authorised by law to take statutory declarations in the applicant's country or in New Zealand.

Examples: a lawyer, notary public, Justice of the Peace, or court official.
c Uncertified electronic copies of documents may be provided in support of an application that has been made online.
d For all applications, including an online application, an immigration officer may request the original document where it has not been supplied with an application.

R2.55.1 Translations

a Any documents not in English must be accompanied by an English translation containing the information normally found in an equivalent New Zealand document, or sufficient information to show that the applicant has met the criteria set out in instructions.
b INZ may, at its discretion, require applicants to provide full English translations of documents.
c Translations must:
   i not be prepared by an applicant, any member of their family or an immigration adviser assisting with the application; and ii be accompanied by the original documents or certified copies; and iii be certified as a correct translation made by a person familiar with both languages and competent in translation work; and iv bear the stamp or signature of the translator or translation business; and v if applicable, be on the official letterhead of the translation business.
d Officers may:
   i request a translation of the complete document where the translation is of a selected part(s) of the document; and ii request a translation by a different (specified) translation service where they are not satisfied by the initial translation.

Note: If a translation by a different (specified) translation service is requested the reason(s) behind the request must be clearly documented and conveyed to the applicant by INZ.

a Principal applicants must pay the fee specified for that type of application at the time the application is lodged, unless:
   i the fee is waived by an officer with schedule 1-3 delegations, who has the authority to grant a special direction under section 395 (2) of the Immigration Act 2009; or ii the principal applicant is a citizen of a country with which New Zealand has a fee waiver agreement covering visas (see A6.5); or iii the applicant is exempt from paying the application fee.

b Principal applicants must pay the immigration levy specified for that type of visa application at the time the application is lodged, unless:
   i the immigration levy is waived by an officer with schedule 1-3 delegations, who has the authority to grant a special direction under section 399(3A) of the Immigration Act 2009; or ii the principal applicant is exempt from paying the immigration levy (see A6.11).

c A receiving office is an INZ office or authorised New Zealand Visa Application Centre (VAC) or MFAT post designated for receiving applications from particular countries. Receiving Offices can be found on the INZ website.

d The fee payable for an application is determined by the principal applicant's country of citizenship.

e If a principal applicant is resident in a country other than their country of citizenship, they may lodge their application at the office designated for receiving applications from the country in which they are residing, but the fee payable will be determined by their country of citizenship.

f If the principal applicant is in New Zealand and lodges an application in New Zealand, the fee payable for the application is the fee payable for applications lodged in New Zealand, regardless of the principal applicant's citizenship.

g Fees and the immigration levy may be paid for by bank cheque, as well as by money order (from registered banks), credit card or EFTPOS, if these forms of payment are acceptable to the INZ office or VAC or MFAT office at which an application is lodged.

h Cash is not an acceptable form of payment, with the exception of the Beijing office.

i Bank cheques for applications lodged at INZ offices in New Zealand should be made out to ‘Immigration New Zealand’.

R2.65 Lodging an Expression of Interest

a  In some cases a person may only apply for a residence class visa if they have earlier been invited to apply for residence by an immigration officer. An invitation to apply for residence is sought through the completion and lodgement of an Expression of Interest.

b  The prescribed manner for completing and submitting an Expression of Interest is that the person expressing interest submits to an immigration officer:
   i   the completed Expression of Interest form; and ii  the appropriate fee (if any).

Note: The completed form can be submitted electronically or in paper form.

c  Expressions of Interest submitted electronically can only be submitted via the INZ website.

R3 Generic Adoptions
R3.1 Definition of 'adoption'

'Adoption' means:

a. a legal adoption; or

b. an adoption by custom which has occurred at an early age within an extended family.

R3.5 Implications of adoptive relationships

a People who have been legally adopted, or who have been adopted by custom are regarded as members of the family into which they have been adopted, if an immigration officer is satisfied that a legal or customary adoption has taken place.

b If an immigration officer is satisfied that a legal or customary adoption has taken place, the person who has been adopted will not be regarded as a member of their biological family under residence instructions for the purposes of:

i inclusion in an application for a residence class visa made by their biological family; and ii sponsorship of members of their biological family for a residence class visa in New Zealand; and

iii sponsorship by members of their biological family for a residence class visa in New Zealand; and

iv determining eligibility for a residence class visa under one of the Family Categories.

R3.5.1 Evidence of adoption a Evidence of a legal adoption is original or certified copies of adoption papers.

b Evidence of a customary adoption is a written declaration by the adoptive parents stating:

i that the person has been adopted by them; and ii the date of the adoption; and iii the country in which the adoption took place.

c INZ may seek confirmation of a customary adoption from the person’s biological parent(s), or adoptive parent(s) as applicable.

d Immigration officers should consult applications lodged by any other family members to confirm whether a customary adoption has been declared. Immigration officers should take such declarations into account when determining whether an adoption by custom has taken place. However, if there are discrepancies between declarations on application forms, immigration officers should not automatically assume that the adoption has not taken place but should refer to R5.15 (‘Explaining discrepancies in family details’).

e Under the Dependent Child Category (see F5), if a person has been legally adopted by a person who is a New Zealand citizen or residence class visa holder evidence that an overseas adoption has the same effect as a New Zealand adoption under section 17 of the Adoption Act 1955 must also be provided (see F5.10.25).

R4.10 Sponsorship undertakings

See also Immigration Act 2009, s 48

a  Sponsorship creates a responsibility for the sponsor to ensure the sponsored person has accommodation, maintenance while in New Zealand, and outward travel.

b  The undertakings for which a sponsor is responsible, and in relation to which a debt is recoverable from the sponsor, are:

i  accommodation, meaning suitable accommodation for the sponsored person in New Zealand, where the sponsored person does not have the means for their own accommodation; and ii  maintenance, meaning the reasonable costs of essential provisions needed for the sponsored person’s health and welfare in New Zealand, where they do not have the means for these. This may include but is not limited to food, clothing and medical treatment where required; and iii  repatriation, meaning any costs associated with the sponsored person leaving New Zealand at the end of the sponsorship period if the person:

   o  does not have the means for their own repatriation (or refuses to pay for it); or o  is liable for deportation.

iv  deportation, meaning any costs that are incurred during the sponsorship period in relation to the sponsored person’s deportation, which could include the costs of locating, detaining and maintaining the person, and their travel costs in being deported.

R4.15 Breach of sponsorship undertakings

b. If costs are incurred by the Crown or a third party because any part of the maintenance, accommodation or outward travel needs of a sponsored person were not met, the sponsor is considered to have breached their sponsorship undertaking.

c. If costs are incurred by the Crown or a third party as a result of a sponsor breaching their sponsorship undertakings,
   i. the visa holder is deemed to have breached the conditions of their visa and will therefore become liable for deportation; and
   ii. these costs are considered to be a debt owed by the sponsor, and the sponsor is liable to be pursued by the Crown or the third party to recover this debt.

d. A sponsor’s liability for any debt incurred to the crown or a third party as a result of a breach of their sponsorship undertakings remains:
   i. after the end of the sponsorship period, until the debt is recovered; and
   ii. regardless of the subsequent status of the sponsored person in New Zealand or the departure of the sponsored person from New Zealand.

R4.20 Duration of sponsorship period

a  The responsibility of the sponsor to meet their undertakings remains in place from the date the sponsored person arrives in New Zealand, or if they are already onshore, from the date the visa with sponsorship conditions is granted, until the earliest of:

ii  the date at the end of the duration stipulated in the category under which the person received their visa; or iii  the date the sponsored person is deported from New Zealand.

R5.15 Explaining discrepancies in family details

a Under the principles of fairness and natural justice, applicants must be given an opportunity to explain any discrepancies in the details of their immediate family, if those discrepancies are materially relevant to the application.

b Applicants, or other relevant parties, may be required to provide the explanation in writing and/or at an interview, and if given at interview the explanation must be recorded in writing.

c If applicants or other relevant parties are required to provide the explanation in writing, they must be given a reasonable time in which to do so and must know what it is they are expected to explain.

d If, as the result of an explanation, the immigration officer is satisfied that the details provided by the applicant are correct, or that the applicant has genuinely misunderstood the requirements, the officer should continue to assess the application.

R5.15.1 False or misleading information a If an immigration officer has reasonable cause to believe that an applicant has:

   i supplied incorrect information; or ii failed to declare relevant family members in a deliberate attempt to mislead, the officer should consider declining the application under the character provisions of the Administration chapter (A5).

b If the application is declined on character grounds, the officer should continue to assess the application and, if the application fails to meet other applicable residence instructions requirements, also decline the application on those grounds.

R5.18 Effect of provisions of the Prostitution Reform Act 2003

No residence class visa may be granted in contravention of the Prostitution Reform Act 2003. That act provides that:

a  No visa may be granted to a person on the basis that they:
   i  Have provided, or intend to provide, commercial sexual services; or ii Have provided, or intend to act as an operator of a business of prostitution; or iii Have invested, or intends to invest, in a business of prostitution.

b  If the holder of a resident visa is subject to any conditions under section 49(1) of the Immigration Act 2009, the condition is considered not to be met (for the purposes of the holder becoming liable for deportation) if the visa holder acts as an operator of, or invests in, a New Zealand business of prostitution.

R5.20 Assessment of applications under nominated category

a Immigration officers need only assess applications under the category the principal applicant nominates.

b Officers are not obliged to seek further information to determine whether the principal applicant may be eligible under another category.

c However, officers should request further information to enable the application to be assessed under another category if:

i an application does not meet the criteria for approval under the category in which it was made; and ii information contained in the application form or accompanying documents clearly indicates that the principal applicant may be eligible under that other category.

Note: Resident visas can only be granted under the Skilled Migrant Category to a person who has been invited by an immigration officer to apply for a residence class visas under the Skilled Migrant Category.

R5.20.1 Further information

a Further information may be submitted at any time before a final decision is made on an application. Immigration officers must take into account any relevant information submitted by applicants before a final decision is made.

b Immigration officers should also take into account any relevant information held about previous applications.

c If applicants do not respond within the specified time to a request from an immigration officer for further information, evidence or documents, or an interview, the application may be assessed on the relevant information then available to INZ, unless it is reasonable to enquire further.

d Applicants must inform an immigration officer of any relevant fact, including any material change in circumstances that occurs after the application is made, if that fact or change in circumstances:

i may affect the decision on the application; or ii may affect a decision to grant entry permission to the holder of a visa.

e Every person expressing an interest in obtaining an invitation to apply for a residence class visa under section 92 of the Immigration Act 2009 must inform an immigration officer of any relevant fact, including any change in circumstances that occurs after the expression of interest is notified, if that fact or change in circumstances:

i may affect the decision to issue an invitation to apply for a residence class visa; or ii may affect a decision to grant a residence class visa as a consequence of the invitation to apply.

f A change in circumstances may relate to the applicant or another person included in the application, and may relate to any matter relevant to the applicable instructions.

g Failure to comply with the requirements of (d) or (e) above:

i amounts to 'concealment of information' for the purposes of section 158 of the Immigration Act; and ii may lead to the holder of any visa granted being made liable for deportation.

h It is sufficient grounds for the Minister of Immigration or an immigration officer to decline to grant a visa to a person if the Minister or officer is satisfied that the person:

i whether personally or through an agent, in expressing their interest in obtaining an invitation to apply for a residence class visa submitted false or misleading information, or withheld relevant information that was potentially prejudicial to the issue of the invitation; or ii did not ensure that an immigration officer was informed of any material change in circumstances between the time of expressing interest and the time of the person's application for the relevant visa; or iii whether personally or through an agent, in applying for the visa submitted false or misleading information or withheld relevant information that was potentially prejudicial to granting the visa; or iv did not ensure that an immigration officer was informed of any material change in circumstances between the time of making the application and the time of a decision on the application.

R5.20.5 Potentially prejudicial information

In accordance with the principles of fairness and natural justice set out in the Administration chapter (A1), applicants for a residence class visa will be given the opportunity to comment before a decision is made to decline to grant a visa on the basis of any potentially prejudicial information that they are not necessarily aware of.

R5.20.10 Documenting decisions

All immigration officers must observe the following procedures to ensure that decisions on applications for a residence class visa are properly documented:

a make all file records (particularly file notes and instructions) accurate, clear, complete and factual;
and

b give all decisions on applications in writing to applicants (or their representatives); and c state the full reasons for the decisions (without prejudicing any risk profiles); and

d if an applicant does not meet the criteria set out in the instructions on several grounds, the letter declining their application must state why the applicant fails on each count.

R5.25 Reclaiming airfares and expenses

a If a person included in a residence class visa application has been previously removed or deported or repatriated from New Zealand, no visa may be granted to anyone included in the application until all expenses incurred by INZ in deporting or repatriating them are repaid.

b Any approval in principle letter (see R5.45) must contain the requirement that all costs be repaid and also show the amount to be repaid.

R5.30 Approving an application

Applications for a residence class visa must be approved if the immigration officer is satisfied that:

a  the applicant has provided all evidence required by the applicable residence instructions, and any additional evidence requested by the immigration officer; and

b  the applicant meets applicable residence instructions including the requirements of health and character.

R5.30.1 Approving an application for a resident visa made at an immigration control area by holders of current Australian permanent residence visas, current Australian resident return visas or valid Australian passports a  People who hold current Australian permanent residence visas, current Australian resident return visas or valid Australian passports may be granted resident visas on arrival in New Zealand, provided they have not been excluded under sections 15 or 16 of the Immigration Act 2009 (see A5.20)

b  If sections 15 or 16 apply, a resident visa may be granted only in accordance with a special direction made under section 17 (see RA8).

Note: A resident visa granted to an Australian passport holder will be an electronic record held by INZ. If an Australian passport holder requires evidence of their resident status in New Zealand, they may apply for a confirmation of a residence class visa (R7).

R5.35 Later application under any residence category by previous applicants

See previous instructions R5.35 Effective 29/11/2010

An applicant for a residence class visa in New Zealand must not be approved under those instructions if their application is based on their relationship to a New Zealand permanent resident, resident or citizen who originally obtained a residence class visa as the partner or dependent child(ren) of the applicant or the applicant's partner.

|   | i) the payment of any ESOL tuition fee; or
|   | ii) transfer and/or investment of funds, as required under the relevant category of residence. |
| b | The date of approval in principle is the date of the letter to the principal applicant or their agent advising that approval in principle has been given. |
| c | An initial period of time must be given to applicant(s) to fulfil outstanding requirements, which may include the provision of an acceptable travel document for the principal applicant required to grant a residence class visa. |
| d | If the outstanding requirements have not been fulfilled within the period specified, the application must be declined unless an immigration officer is satisfied that circumstances warrant extending that period, as outlined in paragraphs (e)–(f) below. |
| e | Immigration officers must consider any relevant circumstances in deciding whether or not to decline an application approved in principle in terms of (d) above, including but not limited to:

R5.45.1 Information received after approval in principle has been given

In accordance with the principles of fairness and natural justice provided in the Administration chapter (A1), principal applicants must be given the opportunity to comment on the basis of any potentially prejudicial information that comes to light after approval in principle, before a final decision on their eligibility under residence instructions (including Health and Character requirements) is made.

   i first arrival by a certain date, if the applicant is offshore (unless the resident visa is a second or subsequent resident visa granted under RV4); and ii multiple entries current either for a set period from date of the initial grant of entry permission based on the resident visa, or until a certain date.

b The currency of these travel conditions are determined by the residence category under which the resident visa has been granted.

a  Any supporting partner who has been convicted either within New Zealand or any other country of:
   i  any offence involving domestic violence; or ii any offence of a sexual nature will not meet the character requirement for partners supporting Partnership Category applications, unless granted a character waiver (see R5.95.5 below).

b  If the supporting partner does not meet the character requirement for partners supporting partnership application, the application may be declined.

Note: For the purpose of these instructions, 'domestic violence' has the meaning set out in s.3 of the Domestic Violence Act 1995.

Any New Zealand conviction maybe covered under the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004. See A5.5.1.

R5.95.1 Evidence that partners supporting Partnership Category applications meet the character requirement a  Character checks must be carried out for partners (aged 17 and over) supporting Partnership Category applications.

b  The supporting partner character check consists of:

   ii a police or similar certificate, less than 6 months old, from any country in which the supporting partner has lived 12 months or more (whether on one visit or intermittently) in the last ten years.

c  Despite (b), an immigration officer may, where they have reason to suspect the supporting partner may not meet character requirements, request a police certificate from the supporting partner for any country in which they have lived for 12 months or more since they turned 17.

d  Where an application is submitted without the required police certificate(s), an immigration officer may nevertheless accept the application, and obtain any necessary clearances after acceptance, if a supporting partner requires a police certificate from a country:
   i  that does not issue police certificates to individuals; or ii for which no instructions in respect of how to obtain a police certificate is available.

e  If a police certificate is not available from a particular country, the supporting partner must provide a separate statutory declaration in both English and the supporting partner’s first language, which must:
   i  detail the supporting partner’s attempts to obtain a police certificate; and ii state whether the supporting partner has been convicted, or found guilty of, or charged with any offences against the law of that country; and iii be corroborated by other information confirming the supporting partner’s character.
Notes:
~ For full information on police certificates see A5.10.
~ Instructions in respect of how to obtain police certificates from specific countries can be obtained from the INZ website at www.immigration.govt.nz/policecertificate.

R5.95.5 Action
a Immigration officers must not automatically decline partnership applications on the basis that the supporting partner does not meet the character requirement for partners supporting partnership applications.

b Officers must consider the surrounding circumstances of the application to decide whether or not they are compelling enough to justify waiving the character requirement. The circumstances include but are not limited to the following factors as appropriate:
   i if applicable, the seriousness of the offence (generally indicated by the term of imprisonment or size of the fine); and/or ii whether there is more than one offence; and/or iii how long ago the relevant event occurred.

c Officers must make a decision only after they have considered all relevant factors, including (if applicable):
   i any advice from the National Office of INZ; and ii compliance with fairness and natural justice requirements (see A1).

a A person who is a national of DPRK is not eligible to obtain a visa, or any other authorisation, that would entitle the person to work in New Zealand.

b R5.100.30(a) does not apply with regard to a visa or other authorisation approved in advance by the Committee (as defined in the UN Sanctions (DPRK) Regulations 2017).

c If the visa or other authorisation as to the eligibility of the person is approved in advance by the Committee, the decision to grant a visa to a person named on the list is limited to immigration officers with Schedule 1-2 delegations (see A15.5).

R5.100.35 Ban on the grant of visas to Russian individuals expelled from certain countries for activities incompatible with their diplomatic status

a New Zealand has taken action in respect of Russian individuals expelled from certain countries for activities incompatible with their diplomatic status.

b Ordinarily, a person described in (a) above may not be granted a visa to enter New Zealand (including a transit visa).

c Where special circumstances exist (supported by cogent and reliable evidence and in consultation with MFAT) INZ may nonetheless grant a visa to such a person.

d The decision to grant a visa to a person named on the list is limited to immigration officers with Schedule 1-2 delegations (see A15.5).

R5.105 Restrictions on the grant of residence class visas for students holding a New Zealand scholarship administered by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade and their dependants

See immigration instruction:
R5.105 Effective 17/11/2014

a Unless (b) applies, New Zealand scholarship students and their partners, and the dependent children of scholarship students and/or their partner are not eligible to be granted a residence class visa:
   i for the duration that the student receives the scholarship; and ii in the two-year period following cessation of the student’s scholarship (see U11).

b The restriction in (a) may be waived if written approval from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (MFAT) is obtained.

c INZ will notify MFAT if any New Zealand scholarship student, their partner or dependent children apply for a residence class visa at any time throughout the duration of the scholarship or in the two-year period following the cessation of the scholarship.

d Any work visa granted to the New Zealand scholarship student’s partner under immigration instructions at WF4.5 will expire on cessation of the scholarship and cannot be renewed, unless the work visa holder has written approval from MFAT for a renewal (see WF4.5).

R5.110 Compliance with employment law

See previous instruction:

a An employer who supports a visa application, or provides an offer of employment in support of an application, must have a history of compliance with employment law.

b A history of compliance with employment law includes, but is not limited to, meeting the requirements of the following legislation:
   i Accident Compensation Act 2001; and ii Employment Relations Act 2000; and iii Equal Pay Act 1972; and viii Wages Protection Act 1983.

R5.110.1 Evidence of non-compliance with employment law a Employers are considered to not have a history of compliance with employment law if they are included on a list of non-compliant employers maintained by the Labour Inspectorate. The rules for inclusion on the list are set out in Appendix 10.

b Where an employer has an investigation or case pending with the Labour Inspectorate, the Employment Relations Authority, or the New Zealand courts, an immigration officer may request further information to determine whether an employer is complying with the requirements of employment law.

c New employers may be considered to have a history of compliance if:
   i they do not appear on the list of non-compliant employers maintained by the Labour Inspectorate; and ii they can demonstrate they have sound human resources policies and practices; and iii there is no other information that indicates non-compliance, for example when a person who is on the stand-down list is able to influence employment agreements, practices and policies.

d A visa application will be declined if:
   i it is supported by, or includes a job offer based on employment with, an employer who is included on a list of non-compliant employers; or ii an immigration officer is otherwise not satisfied the employer meets the requirements of R5.110.1(a) – (c) above.

Note:
- Breaches of employment standards which lead to inclusion on a list of non-compliant employers may still be considered when determining an employer’s compliance with employment law, as required elsewhere in immigration instructions, even if the employer is no longer on the list.

a. Applications under the Skilled Migrant and Investor 2 Categories are assessed under a points system.

b. A person who is interested in applying for a resident visa under the Skilled Migrant or Investor 2 category must complete an Expression of Interest (EOI) form in the prescribed manner.

c. EOIs that meet the prerequisites for health, character and other factors prescribed under those categories, including a minimum point score, are entered into the Skilled Migrant Category Pool or Investor 2 Category Pool.

d. EOIs are ranked in those pools on the basis of their total points. The ranking of EOIs relative to each other will change as EOIs enter, or are withdrawn from, the Pool, or as the points claimed by EOIs already in the Pool change.

e. EOIs may be selected from the relevant pool according to the selection criteria in place at the time of selection.

f. Selected EOIs may result in an Invitation to Apply for residence, subject to an assessment of the credibility of the information provided in the EOI and whether the EOI indicates the presence of any health or character issues that may adversely affect the ability of the person expressing interest to be granted a resident visa.

- BB2.1 Effective 07/12/2015
- BB2.1 Effective 01/11/2015
- BB2.1 Effective 25/08/2014
- BB2.1 Effective 24/03/2014

The Entrepreneur Work Visa is a category of temporary entry class visa with conditions that allow self-employment in New Zealand. Applicants for an Entrepreneur Work Visa may be approved, if they meet the requirements of BB3.1.

Applicants and any partner or dependent child/ren accompanying them must meet health and character requirements for residence as set out at A4 and A5.

Applicants and any partner or dependent child/ren accompanying them must also meet all requirements under Generic Temporary Entry Instructions.

BB2.1.1 Currency of Entrepreneur Work Visas

- An Entrepreneur Work Visa may be granted for a total period of up to 3 years, encompassing an Entrepreneur Start-Up stage and Entrepreneur Balance stage. Only one fee and one immigration levy will be charged for an Entrepreneur Work Visa.

- The Entrepreneur Start-Up stage is the first 12 months of the Entrepreneur Work Visa (though a business immigration specialist may extend the Entrepreneur Start-Up stage under BB4.5.5). During the Entrepreneur Start-Up stage, the holder of the Entrepreneur Work Visa is expected to establish and commence the operation of an agreed business in New Zealand.

- If the holder does not meet the requirements in BB4.5(a) during the Entrepreneur Start-Up stage, the visa expires at the end of the Entrepreneur Start-Up stage.

- If the holder does meet the requirements in BB4.5(a), the visa will be valid for the balance of the 3 year period. This is the Balance stage of the Entrepreneur Work Visa.

- A further Entrepreneur Work Visa (also known as a Renewal) may be granted beyond the 3 year period, if the conditions at BB4.10 are met, the application is approved by a business immigration specialist, and the prescribed fee is paid.

BB2.1.5 Conditions of Entrepreneur Work Visas

- The conditions specified on an Entrepreneur Work Visa will include the following conditions relating to work:
  - As: Self-employed
  - For: (Business type and trading name of business)
  - At: (Location of business)

- The travel conditions on the visa will give permission to travel to New Zealand for multiple journeys.

- Entrepreneur Work Visas and any other temporary visas granted to the holder of an Entrepreneur Work Visa’s partner or dependent child/ren are subject to the condition that the holder must not apply for and be granted welfare assistance under the Social Security Act 1964 while in New Zealand during the currency of their Entrepreneur Work Visas or any visa gained through their relationship with a holder of an Entrepreneur Work Visa.

BB3 Determining an application for an Entrepreneur Work Visa BB3.1 Summary of requirements for the grant of an Entrepreneur Work Visa Applications for an Entrepreneur Work Visa may be approved if:

a. the applicant can demonstrate to the satisfaction of a business immigration specialist that they will meet a minimum capital investment (see BB3.5.10) of $100,000, unless this requirement has been waived under BB3.5.1(b); and

b. the applicant has been awarded a minimum of 120 points for factors described in BB3.10(d); and

c. the applicant provides a business plan specific to the proposed business that meets the requirements of BB3.15; and

d. the applicant has obtained professional or occupational registration in New Zealand if registration is required for operating the proposed business; and

e. the applicant has not been involved in bankruptcy or business failure within the 5 years preceding the date their application was made; and

f. the applicant has not been involved in business fraud or financial impropriety; and

g. the applicant can provide evidence to satisfy a business immigration specialist that they have sufficient funds, in addition to investment capital, to:
   i. finance their business; and
   ii. provide maintenance and accommodation for the period of the Entrepreneur Work Visa for themselves and any partner or dependent child/ren who will accompany them to New Zealand; and

h. a business immigration specialist is satisfied that the applicant:
   i. has sufficient business experience relevant to their business proposal; and
   ii. has a genuine intent to establish the business described in the business plan in New Zealand and will abide by the conditions of the visa; and

i. the applicant and any partner or dependent child/ren accompanying them meet requirements as set out in BB2.1(c) and (d); and

j. the applicant meets fit and proper person requirements (see BM1); and

k. the applicant meets English language requirements set out in BF1 and BF2; and

l. the proposed business would not constitute an unacceptable risk to New Zealand laws or policies under BB3.1.1.

BB3.1.1 Unacceptable risk

a. INZ will decline an application for an Entrepreneur Work Visa where it considers the grant of the visa would create unacceptable risks to the integrity of New Zealand’s immigration or employment laws or policies.

b. Offering business opportunities to meet the requirements of an Entrepreneur Work Visa application by persons whose main business is the facilitation of entry to New Zealand of non-New Zealand citizens and residence class visa holders potentially creates an unacceptable risk to the integrity of New Zealand’s immigration laws and policies. Therefore, applications for Entrepreneur Work Visas based on such business opportunities will not be approved.

BB3.5 Requirement for capital investment

See previous instructions:

If so, the principal applicant may claim the full value of such jointly owned funds or assets for assessment purposes.

b If nominated funds and/or assets are held jointly by the principal applicant and a person other than their partner, the principal applicant may only claim the value of that portion of funds and/or assets for which they provide evidence of ownership.

c The principal applicant may only nominate funds and/or assets that they earned or acquired legally, including funds and/or assets which have been gifted to them unconditionally and in accordance with local law. b  Despite BH3.1(a) above, an application may be approved if:
   i  the business that has been established would have met the requirements for a business plan under the Entrepreneur Work Visa Category; and ii the business that has been established required the same or a greater level of capital investment (see BB3.5.10) than a business proposal in respect of which the applicant was granted a work visa under the Entrepreneur Work Visa Category; and iii the applicant has relevant experience for the new business; and iv the business has provided a significant benefit to New Zealand equal or greater than the original business as determined by a business immigration specialist (see BH4.10).

c  Applications for an Entrepreneur Residence Visa which have not met one or any of the goals in the business plan, or realised their stated goal in one or any of the categories which were claimed in the points scale at BB3.10(d) in the original Entrepreneur Work Visa application, will be declined unless:
   i  the applicant can demonstrate that this failure was due to extraordinary circumstances outside their control; and ii the circumstances were not foreseeable; and iii the failure was not due to lack of planning or realistic goals on the part of the applicant or adviser working on their behalf.

Note: People who hold a visa under the former Long Term Business Visa Category must demonstrate they meet these requirements to be granted residence under the Entrepreneur Residence Visa Category.

BH7.10 Resident visas that are subject to conditions

a All resident visas granted under the Entrepreneur Residence Visa Category under BH2.1(a)(ii) are subject to the following conditions (imposed under section 49(1) of the Immigration Act 2009):

i the principal applicant must be self-employed in the business for a minimum of two years (including the time spent operating the business while holding an Entrepreneur Work Visa); and

ii the principal applicant must retain the investment and maintain the new full time jobs created in the business, employing people under these conditions for a minimum of two years (including the time spent operating the business while holding an Entrepreneur Work Visa); and iii the principal applicant must inform the nearest branch of INZ of any changes of their New Zealand address during the period that the conditions have been imposed on their resident visa.

b Any accompanying partner and dependent child/ren of a principal applicant granted a resident visa will be subject to the condition that the principal applicant complies with the conditions of their visa.

BH7.10.1 Informing resident visa holders of conditions

Principal applicants will be advised of the conditions in a letter that states:

a the conditions their resident visa is subject to;

b what they need to do in order to have these conditions lifted, and in what time frame; and c that failure to comply with the conditions may result in the visa holder becoming liable for deportation under section 159 of the Immigration Act 2009.

BH7.10.5 Reminder from INZ to provide evidence of conditions being met a INZ will attempt to contact the principal applicant three months before the end of the conditions period requesting evidence that conditions are being met.

BH7.10.10 Evidence of meeting conditions a The principal applicant will need to show that they have:

i been self-employed in the business for at least two years (inclusive of time spent operating the business while holding an Entrepreneur Work Visa); and

ii retained the investment and maintained the created three new full time positions for New Zealand citizens or residents in the established business for at least two years (inclusive of time spent operating the business while holding an Entrepreneur Work Visa).

b Notwithstanding BH7.10(a)(ii) above, where the principal applicant fails to retain the investment and/or maintain the created three full time positions in the established business, a business immigration specialist may consider, on a case by case basis, whether the failure was beyond the control of the principal applicant (e.g. unforeseen economic conditions) and, if satisfied that this was the case, may consider the conditions met.

c Suitable evidence to prove that the principal applicant has met the conditions must be produced by a reliable agency or professional (for example, a solicitor or chartered accountant) who is independent both of the business and the applicant’s immigration adviser or lawyer.

d Suitable evidence can include, but is not limited to, original or certified copies of the following documents:

- a Certificate of Incorporation
- financial accounts
• GST records
• other tax records
• employment agreements/contracts
• IRD Employee schedules
• payslips
• job specifications
• letters of appointment
• evidence of employees New Zealand citizenship or resident status (for example: passport, birth certificate)

BH7.10.15 Compliance with conditions

BJ Migrant Investment Categories

BJ2 Overview

The Migrant Investment Categories are comprised of two sub-categories. These are the Investor 1 Category and the Investor 2 Category.

BJ2.1 Investor 1 Category

See previous instructions:
BJ2.1 Effective 29/11/2010

To be approved under this category a principal applicant must:

a  meet requirements for health and character; and b  invest NZ$10 million in New Zealand in an acceptable investment for a three year period.

BJ2.5 Investor 2 Category

See previous instructions:
BJ2.5 Effective 27/11/2014
BJ2.5 Effective 29/11/2010

a A person who is interested in applying for a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category may complete an Expression of Interest (EOI) form in the prescribed manner.

Note: Applications can be made under Investor 1 Category without the need to submit an EOI or be invited to apply.

b EOI s that meet prerequisites for health, character, English language, age, business experience and investment funds, and have a minimum point score of 20, are entered into the Investor 2 Category EOI Pool (see BJ4.10).

c EOI s in the Investor 2 Category EOI Pool are selected from that Pool periodically on the Government’s behalf by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment.

d Points for age, business experience, English language ability and investment funds, including bonus points for growth investments, are claimed by a person expressing interest in accordance with the requirements set out in the Investor 2 Category (see BJ4).

BJ2.5.5 Selection of Expressions of Interest and Invitations to Apply

a EOI s will be ranked in order of points and those that score highest may be periodically selected from the Pool, according to their points ranking, in quantities sufficient to fulfil the annual approval cap stipulated at BJ2.10.

b Entry into the Pool does not guarantee that an EOI will be selected for consideration or that an Invitation to Apply will be issued.

c A selected EOI may result in an Invitation to Apply (ITA) for a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category, subject to:

i an assessment of the credibility of the information provided in the EOI; and ii whether the EOI indicates the presence of any health or character issues that may adversely affect the ability of the person expressing interest to be granted a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category; and

iii whether the EOI indicates that the person expressing interest will not meet the Investor 2 Category criteria.

d Only a person with an ITA may apply for a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category.

BJ2.5.10 Assessing residence applications

a The issue of an ITA does not guarantee that a resident visa will be granted.

b If a person is invited to apply, information provided in the EOI, and any further evidence, information and submissions will form the basis for determination of a subsequent application for a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category.

c Applications for a resident visa resulting from an ITA must include:

i information and evidence to support the claims made in the EOI; and ii information concerning any relevant fact (including any material change in circumstances that occurs after the EOI was submitted) if that fact or change in circumstances could affect the decision on the application. Such a relevant fact or change in circumstances may relate to the principal applicant or another person included in the application, and may relate to any matter relevant to the Investor 2 Category.

d To be approved under the Investor 2 Category, a principal applicant must: meet requirements for health and character (see A4 and A5); and ii qualify for the points for English language, age, business experience and nominated investment funds on the basis of which their EOI was selected from the Pool; and iii invest a minimum of NZ$3.0 million in New Zealand.

Effective 22/05/2017

a Principal applicants are advised of the conditions of their visa in a letter that states:

   i the conditions; and

BJ3.10 Effective 07/11/2011
BJ3.10 Effective 25/07/2011
BJ3.10 Effective 29/11/2010

a The principal applicant must invest a minimum of NZ$10 million in New Zealand for a period of three years.

b The principal applicant must:
   i nominate funds and/or assets equivalent in value to NZ$10 million; and ii demonstrate ownership of these funds and/or assets (see BJ3.10.1); and

c All invested funds must meet the conditions of an acceptable investment as set out under BJ3.10.25.

BJ3.10.1 Ownership of nominated funds and/or assets

a Nominated funds and/or assets may be owned either:
   i solely by the principal applicant; or
   ii jointly by the principal applicant and partner and/or dependent children who are included in the resident visa application, provided a business immigration specialist is satisfied the principal applicant and partner have been living together for 12 months or more in a partnership that is genuine and stable (see R2.1.15 and R2.1.15.1 (b) and R2.1.15.5 (a)(i)). If so, the principal applicant may claim the full value of such jointly owned funds or assets for assessment purposes.

b If nominated funds and/or assets are held jointly by the principal applicant and a person other than their partner or dependent child, the principal applicant may only claim the value of that portion of funds and/or assets for which they provide evidence of ownership.

c The principal applicant may only nominate funds and/or assets that they earned or acquired legally, including funds and/or assets which have been gifted to them unconditionally and in accordance with local law. Where nominated funds and/or assets have been gifted to the principal applicant a business immigration specialist must be satisfied that the funds and/or assets being gifted were earned lawfully by the person/s gifting the funds and/or assets.

e The nominated funds and/or assets must not be borrowed.

BJ3.10.5 Definition of ‘funds earned or acquired legally’

a Funds and/or assets earned or acquired legally are funds and/or assets earned or acquired in accordance with the laws of the country in which they were earned or acquired.

b Business immigration specialists have discretion to decline an application if they are satisfied that, had the funds and/or assets been earned or acquired in the same manner in New Zealand, they would have been earned or acquired contrary to the criminal law of New Zealand.

BJ3.10.10 Definition of ‘unencumbered funds’

Unencumbered funds are funds that are not subject to any mortgage, lien, charge and/or encumbrance (whether equitable or otherwise) or any other creditor claims.
BJ3.10.15 Funds already held in New Zealand

a Funds held in New Zealand at the time the application is made may be included in investment funds. However, periods of investment in New Zealand before approval in principle cannot be taken into account when calculating the three-year investment period.

b Funds held in New Zealand must originally have been transferred to New Zealand through the banking system, or a foreign exchange company that uses the banking system from the country or countries in which they were earned or acquired legally, or have been earned or acquired lawfully in New Zealand (see BJ7.10).

BJ3.10.20 Evidence of the principal applicant’s nominated funds and assets

a Principal applicants must provide evidence of net funds and/or assets to the value of the required investment funds.

b Principal applicants must provide evidence to the satisfaction of a business immigration specialist that the nominated funds and/or assets were earned or acquired legally.

c All documents provided as valuations of assets must be:
   i no more than three months old at the date the resident visa application is made; and ii produced by a reliable independent agency.

d A business immigration specialist may seek further evidence if they:
   i are not satisfied that the nominated funds and/or assets were earned or acquired legally; or ii consider that the nominated funds and/or assets may have been gifted or borrowed without being declared; or iii are not satisfied with the valuation provided; or iv consider that the nominated funds and/or assets fail in some other way to meet the rules for investment funds.

BJ3.10.25 Definition of ‘acceptable investment’

a An acceptable investment means an investment that:
   i is capable of a commercial return under normal circumstances; and ii is not for the personal use of the applicant(s) (see BJ3.10.30); and iii is invested in New Zealand in New Zealand currency; and
   iv is invested in lawful enterprises or managed funds (see BJ3.10.35) that comply with all relevant laws in force in New Zealand; and
   v has the potential to contribute to New Zealand’s economy; and
   vi is invested in either one or more of the following:
      o bonds issued by the New Zealand government or local authorities; or
      o bonds issued by New Zealand firms traded on the New Zealand Debt Securities Market (NZDX); or
      o bonds issued by New Zealand firms with at least a BBB- or equivalent rating from internationally recognised credit rating agencies (for example, Standard and Poor's); or
      o equity in New Zealand firms (public or private including managed funds and venture capital funds); or
      o bonds issued by New Zealand registered banks; or o equities in New Zealand registered banks; or o residential property development(s) (see BJ3.10.40); or o commercial property (see BJ3.15.5); or o bonds in finance companies (see BJ3.10 (d)); or o eligible New Zealand venture capital funds (see BJ3.10.45); or o philanthropic investment (see BJ3.15.10); or
b For private equity investments to be acceptable, the business immigration specialist must be satisfied that the funds being invested are to be actively used by the company to, for example, fund company growth, pay down company debt or purchase capital items.

c Notwithstanding (a) above, where an investment fails to meet one of the acceptable investment requirements, a business immigration specialist may consider, on a case by case basis, whether the failure was beyond the control of the principal applicant and if satisfied that this was the case, may consider the investment acceptable.

d A Business Immigration Specialist may consider bonds in finance companies as an acceptable investment where the finance company:

i is a wholly-owned subsidiary of,

ii raises capital solely for, and

iii has all its debt securities unconditionally guaranteed by a New Zealand Stock Exchange listed company or a local authority.

Note: The value of an investment is based on the net purchase price (for example, less any accrued interest, commission, brokerage and/or trade levy), not on the face value of the investment.

BJ3.10.30 Personal use of investment funds

Personal use includes investment in assets such as a personal residence, car, boat or similar.

BJ3.10.35 Managed funds

a For the purposes of these instructions managed funds are defined as either:

i a managed fund investment product offered by a financial institution; or

ii funds invested in equities that are managed on an investor's behalf by a fund manager or broker.

b In order to be acceptable as a form of investment managed funds must be invested only in New Zealand companies. Managed fund investments in New Zealand with international exposure are acceptable only for the proportion of the investment that is invested in New Zealand companies.

Example: Only 50% of a managed fund that equally invests in New Zealand and international equities would be deemed to be an acceptable investment as set out in BJ3.10.

BJ3.10.40 Residential property development

For the purposes of these instructions, residential property development(s) is defined as property(ies) in which people reside and is subject to the following conditions:

a the residential property must be in the form of new developments on either new or existing sites; and

c the new developments must have been approved and gained any required consents by any relevant regulatory authorities (including local authorities), or if consents are not yet granted, evidence must be submitted that consents have been requested; and

d the purpose of the residential property investments must be to make a commercial return on the open market; and

e neither the family, relatives, nor anyone associated with the principal investor, may reside in the development.
BJ3.10.45 Venture capital funds

a For the purposes of these instructions, a venture capital fund is defined as a fund that invests capital in an early-stage or start-up (or seed) company or companies in exchange for an equity stake in that company or companies.

b In order for a venture capital fund investment to be deemed acceptable by a business immigration specialist, nominated funds can be placed in approved on-call accounts or venture capital funds, subject to the following conditions:
   i applicants must have entered into a binding fund investment contract with an approved venture capital fund manager and into an approved fund structure (for example a New Zealand limited partnership), to supply an agreed amount of funds as committed capital; and
   ii the committed funds are a fixed commitment, managed on an applicant’s behalf by a fund manager or broker, to be drawn down over a stated period; and
   iii nominated funds can either be committed to an acceptable investment or placed into on-call accounts which meet the specifications in BJ3.10.45(e); and
   iv applicants must maintain a level of funds in any approved on-call account equal to the nominated amount minus any funds already committed to the venture capital fund; and

c In order to be approved, all on-call accounts or venture capital funds must be managed on an applicant’s behalf by a fund manager or broker and held in New Zealand in New Zealand dollars.

d Funds and fund administrators or managers must be able to provide confirmation that both funds and managers are fully compliant with any legislative and regulatory obligations, applicable codes of practice and licensing or registration requirements under New Zealand law, including any requirements imposed by the Financial Markets Authority.

e For the purposes of these instructions, acceptable on-call accounts are defined as an investment that can be liquidated to meet the needs of the venture capital fund, including trusts, bonds, or shares in equities.

b the property(ies) is used for business purposes, in that it is:
   i capable of a commercial return; and
   ii not used for land banking; and

b In determining whether a philanthropic investment is genuine, the factors a Business Immigration Specialist may consider include, but are not limited to:
   i the length of time the entity has been operating; and
   ii the constitutional arrangement of the entity; and
   iii the entity’s track record.

a People notify their interest in being invited to apply for a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category by tendering an Expression of Interest (EOI) to Immigration New Zealand in the prescribed manner. The prescribed manner for completing and submitting an EOI is that the person expressing interest submits to a business immigration specialist:
   i a completed Investor 2 Category Expression of Interest Form (INZ 1165); and ii the appropriate fee.

b Through completion of an EOI, a person:
   i provides information regarding their: identity (see A2), health (see A4), character (see A5) and ability to meet the fit and proper person requirements (see BM1); and ii provides information about their English language ability in accordance with the requirements for English language ability set out at BJ5.15 and BJ5.35 of these instructions; and iii claims points for age, business experience, English language and investment funds, including bonus points for proposed growth investments (in accordance with requirements set out in BJ4 of the Investor 2 Category).

c It is the responsibility of the person submitting the EOI to ensure that it is correct in all material respects.

See previous instructions:

See also Immigration Act 2009 ss 58, 93, 157, 158

a The Immigration Act 2009 provides that: i the provision of false or misleading information as part of an Expression of Interest (EOI) or associated submission; or ii the withholding of relevant, potentially prejudicial information from an EOI or associated submission; or
   iii failure to advise an immigration officer of any fact or material change in circumstances that occurs after an EOI is lodged that may affect a decision to invite the person to apply for a resident visa or to grant a resident visa, is sufficient grounds for the decline of an application for a resident visa and for the holder of a residence class or temporary class visa to become liable for deportation.

b Information relating to a claim made in an EOI that is factually inaccurate and is relevant to the issuing of an Invitation to Apply or the assessment of a resident visa application, will be considered misleading unless the principal applicant can demonstrate that there is a reasonable basis for making that claim.

BJ4.10 Submission of Expressions of Interest to the Pool

Expressions of Interest submitted in the prescribed manner may be entered into a Pool of Expressions of Interest (the Pool) if the person expressing interest:

a has confirmed that health and character requirements for entry to the Pool have been met because none of the people included in their Expression of Interest are people who:
   i would not be granted a medical waiver (see A4.60); or ii are described in sections 15 and 16 of the Immigration Act 2009 (see A5.20); and b has claimed at least one point for English language ability (see BJ5.35); and c has confirmed that they are aged 65 years or younger (see BJ5.25); and d has claimed points for a minimum of three years of business experience (see BJ5.30); and a  As Expressions of Interest (EOI) are entered into the Pool they will be ranked on the basis of total points claimed for age, business experience, English language ability and investment funds, including bonus points for proposed growth investments, in accordance with the points allocated to these factors under the Investor 2 Category. The ranking of EOIs relative to each other will change as EOIs enter, or are withdrawn from, the Pool, or as the points claimed by EOIs already in the Pool change.

b  Expressions of Interest may be selected from the Pool according to their points ranking in quantities sufficient to fulfil the annual approval cap stipulated at BJ2.10.

a An Expression of Interest (EOI) is current for a period of six months from the date of initial submission to the Pool unless no Pool selection of EOIs has occurred within that six-month period. Where this is the case, the EOI is current until such time as a selection from the Pool has occurred.

b An EOI that is no longer current will be withdrawn from the Pool.

c An EOI will also be withdrawn from the Pool if it is rejected after selection because it does not meet prerequisites for entry to the Pool and as a result no Invitation to Apply is issued.

a People whose Expressions of Interest (EOI) have been selected from the Pool may be issued with an Invitation to Apply (ITA) for a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category if:

i the information provided does not indicate the presence of any health, character or fit and proper person (BM1) issues which may adversely affect their ability to be granted a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category; and

ii a business immigration specialist considers the person's claims in regards to points for age, business experience, English language ability and investment funds, including bonus points for proposed growth investments which were the basis for selection from the Pool, are credible.

b A business immigration specialist may seek further evidence, information or submissions from a person whose EOI has been selected from the Pool, for the purpose of determining whether to issue them with an ITA under the Investor 2 Category.

c A business immigration specialist's decision to issue an ITA for a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category (based on information, evidence and submissions provided prior to application) does not guarantee:

i that the points claimed by the applicant will be awarded; or ii a positive assessment in respect of health, character, English language, or any other requirements, of any subsequent application for a resident visa; or iii that the person will be granted a resident visa.

d The selection of an EOI from the Pool may not result in an ITA for a resident visa under the Investor 2 Category.

BJ 4.25.1 Further invitations to apply for people selected from the pool before 22 May 2017

a Despite not having a current EOI in the pool, a further ITA may be issued to a person who has already been invited to apply on the basis of an EOI that was selected before 22 May 2017, provided any application they made on the basis of that EOI has not already been decided. Further ITAs of this type can be issued to people who were invited to apply on the basis of an EOI selected before 22 May 2017 and who:

i made an application before 22 May 2017; or ii had a valid ITA on 22 May 2017 (regardless of whether they subsequently made an application based on that ITA).

b Any ITA issued to people described at (a) above will invite them to choose to make an application under either:

i the instructions in place at the time their ITA was issued, or ii the instructions in place at the time their application is made.

c Further ITAs issued under these instructions will have the following validity:

i ITAs issued to people with applications already under process will be valid for one month (if no response is received the application will continue to be processed under the instructions in place at the time of application);
ii ITAs issued to people who have not yet applied will expire one month beyond the expiry date of their original ITA.

a Principal applicants under the Investor 2 category are assessed against:
   i age, health, character and English language requirements; and ii investment requirements; and iii business experience requirements.

b For an application under the Investor 2 category to be approved:
   i the principal applicant must qualify for the points on the basis of which their EOI was selected from the Pool; and ii the principal applicant and family members included in the application must meet health and character requirements; and iii the principal applicant must be aged 65 years or younger; and iv the principal applicant must have a minimum of three years of business experience; and v the principal applicant must qualify for at least 1 point for English language ability (see BJ5.35); and vi the principal applicant must nominate investment funds and/or assets equivalent in value to at least NZ$3.0 million; and vii the principal applicant must demonstrate ownership of the nominated funds and/or assets and that they have been legally earned or acquired; and

c Despite BJ5.5(b)(i) above, if a principal applicant does not qualify for the points for business experience and nominated investment funds on the basis of which their EOI was selected from the Pool (see BJ4.15), a business immigration specialist may, on a case by case basis, determine that the application may nevertheless be approved, where the principal applicant has satisfied a business immigration specialist that there was a reasonable basis for making the claim for points in the Expression of Interest and that in making that claim there was no fraud, or intent to provide false or misleading information.

BJ5.5.1 Applications made on the basis of a further ITA a Despite BJ5.5 and BJ2.5.10, an application under the Investor 2 category can be approved if:

   i it is made on the basis of a further ITA issued in line with BJ4.25.1;
   ii the requirements of either (b) or (c) below are met.

b An application based on a further ITA can be approved if the principal applicant has chosen to be assessed against the immigration instructions in place at the time their EOI was selected and they meet those instructions.

c An application made on the basis of a further ITA issued can be approved if the principal applicant has chosen to be assessed against the instructions in place at the time their application is made and:
   i the principal applicant meets the requirements of BJ5.5 above, except for BJ5.5(b)(i); and ii if the applicant nominated investment funds and/or assets equivalent to more than NZ$3.0 million in their EOI, they have nominated at least the same amount of funds and/or assets in the application.

d Where an application is made on the basis of a further ITA and the applicant already made an application under Investor 2, medical, chest X-ray and police certificates from the first application may be used to determine whether applicants meet health and character requirements, despite the requirements setting out the validity of such certificates in A4.20 (http://inzkit/publish/opsmanual/#46161.htm) and A5.10.

BJ5.30.1 Basic rules for business experience a Business experience is recognised for the award of points if it was acquired through ownership of or management level experience in, a lawful business enterprise that has at least five full-time employees or an annual turn-over of NZ$1 million. Factors a Business Immigration Specialist may take into account to determine whether experience can be recognised may include the degree to which the applicant was involved in: planning, organisation, control, senior change-management, direction-setting and mentoring.

b A principal applicant is considered to own a business if they own at least 25% of a business.

c A lawful business enterprise is an organisation that:

i operates lawfully in a commercial environment with the goal of returning a profit; and ii is not set up primarily for passive or speculative purposes.

BJ5.30.5 Length of business experience a The length of business experience is determined on the basis of full-time business experience of at least 30 hours per week. Credit for part-time business experience may be given on a proportional basis.

Example: Business experience gained over eight years for 15 hours per week would equal four years’ business experience based on a 30-hour week.

b Credit is given for 30 hour weeks only, even where a principal applicant has worked more than 30 hours in any week.
BJS.30.10 Evidence of the principal applicant’s business experience a Documents submitted as evidence of the principal applicant’s business experience must show the position(s) and the responsibilities held.

b Evidence of the principal applicant’s business experience can include, but is not limited to, original or certified copies of the following documents as are necessary to allow a business immigration specialist to make a decision:
   i  business registration ii  company financial accounts iii  company tax returns and tax records iv  shareholder certificates or proof of ownership of business v  job specifications vi  job assessments
   vii  personal tax returns viii  letters of appointment ix  certificates of service x  strategic planning documents xi  references from employers on company letterhead, stating the occupation and dates of employment, and giving the contact phone number and address of the employer.

c A business immigration specialist may require additional documents, evidence and information as they consider necessary to determine an application.

d Evidence of part-time business experience includes that listed in paragraph (b) above, but must show actual weekly hours worked.

Notes:
- Documents provided as evidence of business experience must, in combination, demonstrate experience of all the elements contained within the requirements for recognition of the business experience (see BJS.30.1).
- New Zealand business experience must be lawfully gained.

3. other evidence which satisfies a business immigration specialist that, taking account of that evidence and all the circumstances of the application, the person meets the standard of English for which 20 points can be awarded. Evidence may include but is not limited to:
   - the country in which the applicant currently resides;
   - the country(ies) in which the applicant has previously resided;
   - the duration of residence in each country;

a Nominated funds and/or assets may be owned either:
   i solely by the principal applicant; or
   ii jointly by the principal applicant and partner who are included in the resident visa application, provided a business immigration specialist is satisfied the principal applicant and partner have been living together for 12 months or more in a partnership that is genuine and stable (see R2.1.15 and R2.1.15.1 (b) and R2.1.15.5 (a)(i)); or iii jointly by the principal applicant and dependent children who are included in the resident visa application.

If so, the principal applicant may claim the full value of such jointly owned funds or assets for assessment purposes.

b If nominated funds and/or assets are held jointly by the principal applicant and a person other than their partner or dependent child, the principal applicant may only claim the value of that portion of funds and/or assets for which they provide evidence of ownership.

c The principal applicant may only nominate funds and/or assets that they earned or acquired legally, including funds and/or assets which have been gifted to them unconditionally and in accordance with local law. Where nominated funds and/or assets have been gifted to the principal applicant a business immigration specialist must be satisfied that the funds and/or assets being gifted were earned lawfully by the person/s gifting the funds and/or assets.

a Funds and/or assets earned or acquired legally are funds and/or assets earned or acquired in accordance with the laws of the country in which they were earned or acquired.

b Business immigration specialists have discretion to decline an application if they are satisfied that, had the funds and/or assets been earned or acquired in the same manner in New Zealand, they would have been earned or acquired contrary to the criminal law of New Zealand.

Unencumbered funds are funds that are not subject to any mortgage, lien, charge and/or encumbrance (whether equitable or otherwise) or any other creditor claims.

a Funds held in New Zealand at the time the application is made may be included in investment funds, however, periods of investment in New Zealand before approval in principle cannot be taken into account when calculating the four-year investment period.

b Funds held in New Zealand must originally have been transferred to New Zealand through the banking system, or a foreign exchange company that uses the banking system from the country or countries in which they were earned or acquired legally, or have been earned or acquired legally in New Zealand.

a Principal applicants must provide evidence of net funds and/or assets to the value of the required investment funds.

b Principal applicants must provide evidence to the satisfaction of a business immigration specialist that the nominated funds and/or assets were earned or acquired legally.

c All documents provided as valuations of assets must be:

d no more than three months old at the date the resident visa application is made; and i produced by a reliable independent agency.

ii A business immigration specialist may seek further evidence if they:

iii are not satisfied that the nominated funds and/or assets were earned or acquired legally; or iv consider that the nominated funds and/or assets may have been gifted or borrowed; or v are not satisfied with the valuation provided; or

BJ5.50 Definition of ‘acceptable investment’

See previous instructions:
BJ5.50 Effective 19/06/2017
BJ5.50 Effective 22/05/2017
BJ5.50 Effective 24/03/2014
BJ5.50 Effective 07/11/2011
BJ5.50 Effective 25/07/2011
BJ5.50 Effective 29/11/2010

a  An acceptable investment means an investment that:
   i  is capable of a commercial return under normal circumstances; and ii is not for the personal use of the applicant(s) (see BJ5.50.1 below); and
   iii is invested in New Zealand in New Zealand currency; and
   iv is invested in lawful enterprises or managed funds (see BJ5.50.5) that comply with all relevant laws in force in New Zealand; and
   v has the potential to contribute to New Zealand’s economy; and
   vi is invested in either one or more of the following:
      o bonds issued by the New Zealand government or local authorities; or
      o bonds issued by New Zealand firms traded on the New Zealand Debt Securities Market (NZDX); or
      o bonds issued by New Zealand firms with at least a BBB- or equivalent rating from internationally recognised credit rating agencies (for example, Standard and Poor's); or
      o equity in New Zealand firms (public or private including managed funds and venture capital funds); or
      o bonds issued by New Zealand registered banks; or
      o equities in New Zealand registered banks; or
      o residential property development(s) (see BJ5.50.10) or
      o commercial property (see BJ5.50.20); or
      o bonds in finance companies (see BJ5.50(d)); or
      o eligible New Zealand venture capital funds (see BJ5.50.15); or
      o philanthropic investment (see BJ5.40.1); or o ‘Angel funds or networks’ investments.

Note: New Zealand registered banks are defined by the New Zealand Reserve Bank Act 1989.

b  For private equity investments to be acceptable, the business immigration specialist must be satisfied that the funds being investigated are to be actively used by the company to, for example, fund company growth, pay down company debt or purchase capital items.

c  Notwithstanding (a) above, where an investment fails to meet one of the acceptable investment requirements, a business immigration specialist may consider, on a case by case basis, whether the failure was beyond the control of the principal applicant and if satisfied that this was the case, may consider the investment acceptable.

d  A Business Immigration Specialist may consider bonds in finance companies as an acceptable investment where the finance company:
   i  is a wholly-owned subsidiary of,
   ii raises capital solely for, and
Note: The value of an investment is based on the net purchase price (for example, less any accrued interest, commission, brokerage and/or trade levy), not on the face value of the investment.

BJ5.50.1 Personal use of investment funds
Personal use includes investment in assets such as a personal residence, car, boat or similar.

a For the purposes of these instructions, managed funds are defined as either:
   i a managed fund investment product offered by a financial institution; or
   ii funds invested in equities that are managed on an investor’s behalf by a fund manager or broker.
b In order to be acceptable as a form of investment managed funds must be invested only in New Zealand companies. Managed fund investments in New Zealand with international exposure are acceptable only for the proportion of the investment that is invested in New Zealand companies.

BJ5.50.10 Residential property development
For the purposes of these instructions, residential property development(s) is defined as property(ies) in which people reside and is subject to the following conditions:

c the new developments must have been approved and gained any required consents by any relevant regulatory authorities (including local authorities), or if consents are not available, evidence must be submitted that consents have been requested; and
d the purpose of the residential property investments must be to make a commercial return on the open market; and e neither the family, relatives, nor anyone associated with the principal applicant, may reside in the development.

a For the purposes of these instructions, a venture capital fund is defined as a fund that invests capital in an early-stage or start-up (or seed) company or companies in exchange for an equity stake in that company or companies.
b In order for a venture capital fund investment to be deemed acceptable by a business immigration specialist, nominated funds can be placed in approved on-call accounts or venture capital funds, subject to the following conditions:
   i applicants must have entered into a binding fund investment contract with an approved venture capital fund manager and into an approved fund structure (for example a New Zealand limited partnership), to supply an agreed amount of funds as committed capital; and
   ii the committed funds are a fixed commitment, managed on an applicant’s behalf by a fund manager or broker, to be drawn down over a stated period; and
   iii nominated funds can either be committed to an acceptable investment or placed into on-call accounts which meet the specifications in BJ5.50.15(e); and
   iv applicants must maintain a level of funds in any approved on-call account equal to the nominated amount minus any funds already committed to the venture capital fund; and
c In order to be approved, all on-call accounts or venture capital funds must be managed on an applicant’s behalf by a fund manager or broker and held in New Zealand in New Zealand dollars.

d Funds and fund administrators or managers must be able to provide confirmation that both funds and managers are fully compliant with any legislative and regulatory obligations, applicable codes of practice and licensing or registration requirements under New Zealand law, including any requirements imposed by the Financial Markets Authority.

BJ5.50.20 Definition of ‘Commercial Property’

For the purposes of Investor 2 Category instructions, commercial property is considered to be an acceptable investment if:

a the property(ies) is not residential or for domestic use; and

b the property(ies) is used for business purposes, in that it is:
   i capable of a commercial return; and
   ii not used for land banking; and

c the purpose of the commercial property investments must be to make a commercial return on the open market; and

d neither the family, relatives, nor anyone associated with the principal applicant may reside in the development; and

e if a new development, the property(ies) must have been approved and gained any required consents by any relevant regulatory authorities (including local authorities).

BJ5.50.25 Definition of ‘Philanthropic Investment’ a For Philanthropic investments to be considered acceptable, a Business Immigration Specialist must be satisfied the investment is genuine (see (b) below) and is in:

   i a registered charity with at least two years annual returns and Inland Revenue donee status; or

b In determining whether a philanthropic investment is genuine, the factors a Business Immigration Specialist may consider include, but are not limited to:
   ii the constitutional arrangement of the entity; and

c A maximum of 15 percent of total investment funds can be invested in philanthropic donations.

i be the funds initially nominated, or the funds that result from the sale of the same assets as those initially nominated, in the resident visa application; or ii be funds, in the case of the Investor 1 Category as agreed to by a business immigration specialist, secured against the nominated assets in the resident visa application and as approved in accordance with (b) below; and

iii be transferred through the banking system directly from the principal applicant's bank account(s) to New Zealand; or iv be transferred by a foreign exchange company to New Zealand through the banking system. Business immigration specialists may not accept the transferred funds if the applicant cannot provide satisfactory evidence of the following:

ii the borrowed investment funds will be from a bank or commercial lending institution acceptable to a business immigration specialist and will be secured against the assets identified under (i); and

iii it is not economically viable or practical to liquidate the nominated assets. eg sell a business.

c The investment funds that are transferred to New Zealand and subsequently into an acceptable investment must be from the same source of funds as nominated in the resident visa application.

BM2.1 Applications usually deferred

BM2.1 Effective 08/05/2017

a Applications under business instructions will usually be deferred for up to six months if, at the time the application is assessed the applicant:
   i has been charged with any offence which, on conviction, would result in the applicant failing to meet BM2(a)(ii) apply to that person; or ii is under investigation for such an offence.

b Where BM2.1(a) applies at the time an application under business instructions is assessed, an immigration officer must:
   i defer the decision on the application for up to six months; and ii inform the applicant in writing of the decision to grant a deferral and the period of the deferral; and iii await the outcome of the charge or investigation.

c If during the deferral period the investigation is completed with no further action taken or any case that resulted from charges or investigation is resolved, an immigration officer must continue processing the application and apply the fit and proper person instructions as per BM2; and

d If the charge or investigation is still outstanding, or subsequent charges have been laid, when the deferral period is coming to an end, the application should be referred to a Head of Operations or Visa Operations Manager for their decision on whether to impose a second or subsequent deferral as per BM2.1.1.

BM2.1.1 Second and subsequent deferral periods a In cases where the deferral period is coming to an end and the applicant is still awaiting the outcome of the charge or investigation, a second or subsequent deferral period may be imposed.

b A decision on a second or subsequent deferral will only be made after appropriate consultation with Visa Services Operations Support and the Legal Services of the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment about:
   i whether a second or subsequent deferral is justified in the circumstances; and ii whether the deferral period is reasonable, given the likely timeframe of any outcome being reached and the efforts the applicant is making to reach an outcome.

c A decision to grant a second deferral must be made by a Head of Operations or Visa Operations Manager or above.

d If the applicant is still awaiting the outcome of the charge or investigation by the end of the second deferral period, the Head of Operations or Visa Operations Manager may impose a subsequent deferral under the provisions at BM2.1.1.

e The length of the subsequent deferral period will be decided according to how long it is expected for a decision on the charge or investigation will take.

f The applicant must be informed in writing of any decision to impose a second or subsequent deferral and the period of the deferral.

BM3 Applicants who are not ‘fit and proper’ people a  Despite BM2, where an application otherwise meets all requirements for approval and there has been an incident of non-compliance with any relevant immigration, employment or taxation law in force, a business immigration specialist may nevertheless approve the application where:

   i  they are satisfied the breach of requirements was of a minor nature; and ii evidence is provided that satisfies a business immigration specialist the cause and consequences of the breach have been remedied.

b  To determine the nature of the non-compliant activity, a business immigration specialist may consult with WorkSafe New Zealand, the Labour Inspectorate, the Accident Compensation Corporation or any other relevant agency.

F2 Partnership Category
F2.1 Objective
Partnership Category contributes to the overall objective of the Family Categories (see F1) by allowing the partners of New Zealand citizens and residence class visa holders to apply for a residence class visa in order to live with their partner in New Zealand.

Note: Partners of New Zealand citizens and residence class visa holders do not have an automatic right of residence in New Zealand.

F2.5 How do partners of New Zealand citizens and residents qualify for a residence class visa?

See previous instructions:
F2.5 Effective 19/08/2013
F2.5 Effective 07/11/2011
F2.5 Effective 29/11/2010

a To be granted a residence class visa under Partnership Category applicants must provide sufficient evidence to satisfy an immigration officer that they have been living together for 12 months or more in a partnership that is genuine and stable with a New Zealand citizen or resident.

b For the purpose of these instructions 'partnership' means:
   i a legal marriage; or ii a civil union; or iii a de facto relationship and 'partner' means one of the parties to such a partnership indicated in (i), (ii) and (iii) above.

c In each case the onus of proving that the partnership on which the application is based is genuine and stable lies with the principal applicant and their New Zealand partner.

d An application under Partnership Category will be declined if:
   i the application is not supported by an eligible New Zealand citizen or resident partner; or ii an immigration officer is not satisfied that the partnership on which the application is based is genuine and stable; or iii the applicant and New Zealand citizen or resident partner have not lived together for 12 months or more at the time the application is lodged; or iv the application is based on marriage or a civil union to a New Zealand citizen or resident and either that New Zealand citizen or resident, or the principal applicant is already married to or in a civil union with another person; or v both the principal applicant and the New Zealand citizen or resident partner cannot satisfy an immigration officer they comply with the minimum requirements for recognition of partnerships (see F2.15); or vi the applicant(s) does not meet health and character requirements (see A4 and A5).

e Applications for residence under Partnership Category will also be declined if the principal applicant was a partner to the eligible New Zealand partner but not declared on the eligible New Zealand partner’s application for a residence class visa (if applicable), unless an immigration officer is satisfied the non-declaration occurred with:
   i no intention to mislead; and ii would not have resulted in a different outcome in the eligible New Zealand partner’s application.

   If both these clauses are met, an immigration officer should continue to assess the application and may approve it if all other requirements are met.

Note: Notwithstanding (e) above, officers should not decline an application on the basis of this provision without first providing the principal applicant an opportunity to explain the non-declaration in accordance with R5.15 Explaining discrepancies in family details.

F2.5.1 Eligibility for a permanent resident visa for partners of New Zealand citizens living overseas a A principal applicant may be granted a permanent resident visa (RA1.5) if:

   i they meet all the other criteria for a residence class visa under the Partnership Category; and ii they have a New Zealand citizen partner who has been residing outside New Zealand for a period of at least five years at the time the application is made; and iii the couple have been living together in a genuine and stable relationship for at least five years at the time the application is made.

b To meet the requirements of a(ii) above, the New Zealand citizen partner must either be i outside New Zealand at the time the application is made; or ii have been in New Zealand for less than three months after residing outside New Zealand for at least five years at the time the application is made.

c For the purposes of these instructions, residing outside New Zealand means spending less than 3 months in New Zealand in each of the five 12 month periods immediately preceding either:
   i the date the application is made (if the application was made outside New Zealand); or ii the date the New Zealand citizen partner arrived in New Zealand (if the application was made in New Zealand).

d Any secondary applicants included in an application where the principal applicant is eligible for a permanent resident visa under these instructions may also be granted a permanent resident visa (RA1.5).

e Any applicants who do not meet the criteria set out in this section but who meet all other requirements of the Partnership Category should be granted a resident visa (RA1.1).

F2.25 Verification

See previous instructions F2.25 Effective 29/11/2010

F2.25.1 Interviews

a. Immigration officers will usually conduct an interview with both the principal applicant and their partner to determine whether the couple is living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable.

b. Interviews may be waived if an immigration officer is satisfied without an interview that the couple is living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable.

c. Immigration officers may also make home visits and conduct interviews with any other person relevant to the application.

d. Home visits may only be made between the hours of 7.00 am and 9.00 pm so long as the time of the visit is reasonable in the circumstances.

F2.25.5 Family details

Immigration officers may refer to former applications lodged by applicants, family members of applicants, or partners in order to verify declarations made by applicants about their family details (such as the number of family members, the whereabouts of family members, or an applicant’s or partner’s marital status).

F2.30 Determining if the couple is living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable a When determining if the couple is living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable the immigration officer will take into account those factors set out at F2.20(b) and must consider, and be satisfied, there is sufficient proof, (from documents, other corroborating evidence, or interviews) of all four of the following elements:

i 'Credibility': the principal applicant and the partner both separately and together, must be credible in any statements made and evidence presented by them.

ii 'Living together': the principal applicant and partner must be living together unless there are genuine and compelling reasons for any period(s) of separation (see F2.30.1).

iii 'Genuine partnership': the principal applicant and partner must both be found to be genuine as to their:
- reasons for marrying, entering a civil union or entering into a de facto relationship; and
- intentions to maintain a long term partnership exclusive of others.

iv 'Stable partnership': the principal applicant and partner must demonstrate that their partnership is likely to endure.

b A residence class visa must not be granted unless the immigration officer is satisfied, having considered each of the four elements in (a) above (both independently and together) that the couple is living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable.

Note: The onus of satisfying an immigration officer that the partnership is genuine and stable lies with the principal applicant and their partner (see F2.5(c)).

F2.30.1 Assessment of periods of separation a If a principal applicant and their partner have lived apart for periods during their partnership, the application should not automatically be declined. Instead, immigration officers should determine whether there are genuine and compelling reasons for any period(s) of separation.

b Determining whether there are genuine and compelling reasons will depend on the circumstances in each case, and may require consideration of:
- either partner's family, education or employment commitments;
- the duration of the partnership and the length of time the couple has spent apart;
- the extent to which the couple has made efforts to be together during the time apart.

Note: These instructions cease to be effective from 8 May 2017.

a. An application can only be deferred if the applicant has been assessed as living together in a genuine and stable partnership with their New Zealand citizen or resident partner but the 12 month qualifying period has not been met.

b. If, after assessing an application, an immigration officer is satisfied the couple are living together in a partnership that is genuine and stable, but the duration of that partnership is less than the 12 months required, (see F2.5(a)) they may defer the final decision to enable the qualifying period to be met.

c. If the principal applicant wishes to be in New Zealand with their partner during the deferral period, they may be granted a work visa (once an application has been made) for a period sufficient to enable the qualifying period to be met and any further assessment of their residence class visa application to be completed.

The objective of the Parent Retirement Category is to provide a residence class visa to those with family links to New Zealand who wish to make a significant contribution to New Zealand’s economy.

F3.5 Parent Retirement Category requirements

a For an application to be approved under the Parent Retirement Category the principal applicant must:
   i nominate funds and/or assets equivalent in value to at least NZ$1 million and undertake to invest them in New Zealand for a period of four years; and ii demonstrate ownership of these funds and/or assets and that they have been legally earned or acquired; and iii transfer and place the funds in an acceptable investment in accordance with the instructions at F3.10.25; and iv nominate NZ$0.5 million of settlement funds and demonstrate ownership of these funds and/or assets; and v demonstrate an annual income of at least NZ$60,000; and vi meet the Family requirements as set out at F3.20.

b The principal applicant and any secondary applicant included in the application must meet health and character requirements (see A4 and A5).

Effective 29/11/2010
F3.10 Investment funds

See previous instructions:
- F3.10 Effective 07/11/2011
- F3.10 Effective 25/07/2011
- F3.10 Effective 29/11/2010

a  The principal applicant must invest a minimum of NZ$1 million in New Zealand for a period of four years.

b  The principal applicant must:
   i  nominate funds and/or assets equivalent in value to NZ$1 million; and
   ii  demonstrate ownership of these funds and/or assets.

c  All invested funds must meet the conditions of an acceptable investment as set out under F3.10.25.

F3.10.1 Ownership of nominated funds and/or assets

a  Nominated funds and/or assets may be owned either:
   i  solely by the principal applicant; or
   ii  jointly by the principal applicant and partner who are included in the resident visa application, provided a business immigration specialist is satisfied the principal applicant and partner have been living together for 12 months or more in a partnership that is genuine and stable (see R2.1.15 and R2.1.15.1(b) and R2.1.15.5(a)(i)). If so, the principal applicant may claim the full value of such jointly owned funds or assets for assessment purposes.

b  If nominated funds and/or assets are held jointly by the principal applicant and a person other than their partner, the principal applicant may only claim the value of that portion of funds and/or assets for which they provide evidence of ownership.

c  The principal applicant may only nominate funds and/or assets that they earned or acquired legally, including funds and/or assets which have been gifted (with the exception of New Zealand based-funds or assets) to them unconditionally and in accordance with local law. Where nominated funds and/or assets have been gifted to the principal applicant a business immigration specialist must be satisfied that the funds and/or assets being gifted were earned legally by the person(s) gifting the funds and/or assets.

e  The nominated funds and/or assets must not be borrowed.

Note: New Zealand-based funds or assets cannot be gifted under these instructions.

F3.10.5 Definition of ‘funds earned or acquired legally’

a  Funds and/or assets earned or acquired legally are funds and/or assets earned or acquired in accordance with the laws of the country in which they were earned or acquired.

b  Business immigration specialists have discretion to decline an application if they are satisfied that, had the funds and/or assets been earned or acquired in the same manner in New Zealand, they would have been earned or acquired contrary to the criminal law of New Zealand.

F3.10.10 Definition of ‘unencumbered funds’

Unencumbered funds are funds that are not subject to any mortgage, lien, charge and/or encumbrance (whether equitable or otherwise) or any other creditor claims.
F3.10.15 Funds already held in New Zealand

a. Funds held in New Zealand at the time the application is made may be included in investment funds. However, periods of investment in New Zealand before Approval in Principle cannot be taken into account when calculating the four-year investment period.

b. Funds held in New Zealand must originally have been transferred to New Zealand through the banking system, or a foreign exchange company that uses the banking system from the country or countries in which they were earned or acquired legally, or have been earned or acquired legally in New Zealand.

F3.10.20 Evidence of the principal applicant’s nominated funds and assets

a. Principal applicants must provide evidence of net funds and/or assets to the value of the required investment funds.

b. All documents provided as valuations of assets must be:
   i. no more than three months old at the date the resident visa application is made; and
   ii. produced by a reliable independent agency.

c. A business immigration specialist may seek further evidence if they:
   i. are not satisfied with the valuation provided; or
   ii. consider that the nominated funds and/or assets fail in some other way to meet the rules for investment funds.

F3.10.25 Definition of ‘acceptable investment’

a. An acceptable investment means an investment that:
   i. is capable of a commercial return under normal circumstances; and
   ii. is not for the personal use of the applicant(s) (see F3.10.30); and
   iii. is invested in New Zealand in New Zealand currency; and
   iv. is invested in lawful enterprises or managed funds that comply with all relevant laws in force in New Zealand (see F3.10.35); and
   v. has the potential to contribute to New Zealand’s economy; and
   vi. is invested in either one or more of the following:
      o. bonds issued by the New Zealand government or local authorities; or
      o. bonds issued by New Zealand firms traded on the New Zealand Debt Securities Market (NZDX); or
      o. bonds issued by New Zealand firms with at least a BBB- or equivalent rating from internationally recognised credit rating agencies (for example, Standard and Poor’s); or
      o. equity in New Zealand firms (public or private including managed funds) (see F3.10.35); or
      o. bonds issued by New Zealand registered banks; or
      o. equities in New Zealand registered banks; or
      o. residential property development(s) (see F3.10.40); or
      o. bonds in finance companies (see F3.10.25 (c)).

Note: For the purposes of these instructions, convertible notes are considered to be an equity investment.

New Zealand registered banks are defined by the New Zealand Reserve Bank Act 1989.

b. Notwithstanding (a) above, where an investment fails to meet one of the acceptable investment requirements, a business immigration specialist may consider, on a case by case basis, whether the failure was beyond the control of the principal applicant and if satisfied that this was the case, may consider the investment acceptable.

c. A Business Immigration Specialist may consider bonds in finance companies as an acceptable investment where the finance company:
i is a wholly-owned subsidiary of,
ii raises capital solely for, and

Note: The value of an investment is based on the net purchase price (for example, less any accrued interest, commission, brokerage and/or trade levy), not on the face value of the investment.

F3.10.30 Personal use of investment funds

Personal use includes investment in assets such as a personal residence, car, boat or similar.

F3.10.35 Managed funds

a For the purposes of these instructions, managed funds are defined as either:
   i a managed fund investment product offered by a financial institution; or

b In order to be acceptable as a form of investment managed funds must be invested only in New Zealand companies. Managed fund investments in New Zealand with international exposure are acceptable only for the proportion of the investment that is invested in New Zealand companies.

Example: Only 50 percent of a managed fund that equally invests in New Zealand and international equities would be deemed to be an acceptable investment as set out in F3.15.25.

F3.10.40 Residential property development

For the purposes of these instructions, residential property development(s) is defined as property(ies) in which people reside and is subject to the following conditions:

c the new developments must have been approved and gained any required consents by any relevant regulatory authorities (including local authorities); and

d the purpose of the residential property investments must be to make a commercial return on the open market; and

e neither the family, relatives, nor anyone associated with the principal investor, may reside in the development; and

f the costs associated with obtaining any regulatory approval (including any resource or building consents) are not part of the principal applicant’s acceptable investments.

F4.5 Definitions

F4.5 26/11/2012
F4.5 30/07/2012

F4.5.1 Definition of ‘lawfully and permanently’
People are lawfully and permanently in a country if they either:

a are:
   i citizens or persons who have the right of or permission to take up indefinite residence in that country, and ii actually reside in that country; or b live in a refugee camp in that country with little chance of repatriation.

Note: For the purpose of determining whether an applicant meets the requirements of the Parent Category, if a person does not have the right of, or permission to take up, indefinite residence in the country in which they actually reside, they are deemed to be lawfully and permanently in the country in which they:
   ~ predominantly lived in the last 10 years; and

For the purpose of the Parent Category, and despite the definition in section 4 of the Immigration Act 2009, a child is dependent if they:

a are:
   i aged 21 to 24, with no child(ren) of their own; and
   ii single (see F5.5); and

   ii single (see F5.5).

d When determining whether a child of 21 to 24 years of age is totally or substantially reliant on their parent(s) for financial support, immigration officers must consider the whole application, taking into account all relevant factors including whether the child:
   • is in paid employment, whether this is full-time or part-time, and its duration;
   • has any other independent means of financial support;
   • is living with their parents or another family member, and the extent to which other support is provided; or
   • is studying, and whether this is full-time or part-time.

a For sponsorship purposes, 'adult child' means a child of 18 or older.

b However, children aged 18 to 24 must only be considered as 'adult children' for sponsorship purposes if they can satisfy an immigration officer that they, like other sponsors, are able to meet sponsorship undertakings (see R4.10) and, if applicable, the minimum income requirement (see F4.30.1 and F4.35.1).

Note: Parents sponsored by adult children who are also dependent children will not meet the requirements at F4.20.5.

F4.5.20 Definition of ‘guaranteed lifetime minimum income’
For the purposes of the Parent Category, a ‘guaranteed lifetime minimum income’ is an annual income that is paid to a person indefinitely to at least the level required to be granted residence under tier one of the Parent Category (see F4.30.5). Income can only be considered ‘indefinite’ if it will continue to be paid to a person indefinitely once they become a New Zealand resident and citizen.

a Funds and/or assets earned or acquired legally are funds and/or assets earned or acquired in accordance with the laws of the country in which they were earned or acquired.

b Immigration officers have discretion to decline an application if they are satisfied that, had the funds and/or assets been earned or acquired in the same manner in New Zealand, they would have been earned or acquired contrary to the criminal law of New Zealand.

F4.5.30 Definition of 'unencumbered funds'
Unencumbered funds are funds that are not subject to any mortgage, lien, charge and/or encumbrance (whether equitable or otherwise) or any other creditor claims.

F4.5.35 Definition of 'New Zealand Government benefit'
For the purposes of the Parent Category, a ‘New Zealand Government benefit’ is welfare assistance which was applied for and granted under the Social Security Act 1964.

F4.10.1 Expressing interest in being invited to apply for residence under the Parent Category a A person notifies that they are interested in being invited to apply for a resident visa under the Parent Category by submitting an Expression of Interest (EOI) to Immigration New Zealand (INZ) in the prescribed manner. In order to submit an EOI in the prescribed manner, a person must submit to an immigration officer:

i a completed prescribed Parent Category EOI form; and

ii the appropriate fee (if any).

b By completing an EOI, a person provides a declaration about their and any potential secondary applicant’s:

i identity, health and character; and ii English language ability or an intention to agree to pre-purchase English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) tuition F4.15); and

iii relationship to their sponsoring adult child and any other children the applicants have (see F4.20); and iv adult child’s eligibility to sponsor them for New Zealand residence under the Parent Category (see F4.25); and

v guaranteed lifetime minimum income, settlement funds, or the income of their sponsor, or of their sponsor and their sponsor’s partner F4.30 and F4.35).

c It is the responsibility of the person submitting the EOI to ensure that the information given is correct in all material respects.

Note: For the purposes of F4.10.1(b)(v), people submitting EOIs under tier two will only be required to declare their sponsor and/or their sponsor’s partner’s income.

F4.10.5 Implications of providing false or misleading information

See Immigration Act 2009, ss 93 and 158

a The Immigration Act 2009 provides that there is sufficient grounds to decline an application for a resident visa and for the holder of a resident visa granted under the Parent Category to become liable for deportation in cases of:

i the provision of false or misleading information as part of an EOI or associated submission; or

ii the withholding of relevant potentially prejudicial information from an EOI or associated submission; or

iii failure to advise an immigration officer of any fact or material change in circumstances that occurs after an EOI is submitted that may affect a decision to invite the person to apply for a resident visa or to grant a resident visa.

b Information relating to a claim made in an EOI that is factually inaccurate and is relevant to the issuing of an invitation to apply or the assessment of a resident visa application will be considered misleading unless the principal applicant can demonstrate that there is a reasonable basis for making that claim.
F4.10.10 Submission of Expressions of Interest to the Pool a EOI s submitted in the prescribed manner may be entered into a pool of Expressions of Interest (the Pool).

b A person may only have one EOI in the Pool at any time (regardless of the tier of the EOI).

c Each EOI will be entered into the Pool in either tier one or tier two as indicated in the EOI form.

d Despite (c) above, if permission is given by the person expressing interest, an EOI may be entered into the alternative tier of the Pool (see F4.10.10(e) and (f)).

e If a person with an EOI in the Pool under tier two updates their information and becomes eligible to be entered into the Pool under tier one, their EOI will be entered into the Pool under tier one based on the original date the EOI was previously entered under tier two.

f If a person with an EOI in the Pool under tier one updates their information and is no longer eligible under tier one, but is eligible under tier two, their EOI will be entered into the Pool under tier two based on the original date the EOI was previously entered under tier one.

g Where a person with an EOI already entered into the Pool updates their information and no longer meets the requirements of the Parent Category under either tier, their EOI will be withdrawn from the Pool and lapsed.

F4.10.15 Selection of Expressions of Interest a EOI s will be selected from the pool in the following order:

i Tier one EOIs will be selected first and in order based on the date the EOIs were entered into the Pool; and ii Residence applications lodged under the Parent and Sibling and Adult Child categories before 16 May 2012 will be selected second, in date order; and

iii Tier two EOIs will be selected third and in order based on the date the EOIs were entered into the Pool, only if there are no tier one EOIs and no applications that were lodged before 16 May 2012.

b The ranking of EOIs will change as EOIs enter, or are selected from, the Pool or any given tier of the Pool.

c EOIs will be selected in sufficient numbers to meet the requirements of the New Zealand Residence Programme (NZRP) at the time of selection (subject to any adjustment to the number or distribution of places in the NZRP determined by the Government) (see R6).

d EOIs are selected from the Pool periodically on the Government’s behalf by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment.

e Despite F4.10.15 (a) above, with effect from 12 October 2016, no selections will be made from the Pool.

F4.10.20 Invitation to apply for a resident visa under the Parent Category a People whose EOIs have been selected from the Pool may be issued an invitation to apply for a resident visa under the Parent Category.

b An immigration officer may decline an EOI if they are not satisfied claims made within the EOI are:

i credible; or

c An immigration officer may, but is not required to, seek further evidence, information and submissions from a person whose EOI has been selected from the Pool, for the purpose of determining whether their claims are credible and whether there are any health or character issues that may adversely affect their ability to be granted a resident visa under the Parent Category.
d  If an immigration officer is not satisfied the claims made in an EOI selected from the Pool under tier one would be sufficient to meet the requirements of the Parent Category under tier one, but believes the EOI would meet the requirements under tier two, the EOI will be re-entered into the Pool under tier two. Despite F4.10.10(d), an immigration officer is not required to gain permission from the person expressing interest in order to do this. The EOI’s place in the Pool will be based on the date the EOI was first entered into the Pool under tier one.

e  In any particular case, the selection of an EOI from the Pool may not result in an invitation to apply for a resident visa under the Parent Category.

Note: A decision to invite a person to apply for a resident visa under the Parent Category does not guarantee in any subsequent application for a resident visa a positive assessment of any requirements for the Parent Category or generic residence (including health, and character).

f  For the purposes of F4.10.20(d), re-entry into the Pool does not guarantee a person will be invited to apply once their EOI is selected from the Pool under tier two.

F4.10.25 Assessing Parent Category applications a  A person who is sent an invitation to apply for residence under tier one of the Parent Category may only apply for residence using tier one requirements (see F4.30).

b  A person who is sent an invitation to apply for residence under tier two of the Parent Category may make a Parent Category application using the requirements for either tier one or tier two (see F4.30 and F4.35).

c  Applications received under tier one of the Parent Category i  will be assessed against the requirements for tier one at F4.30 and the generic requirements for the Parent Category (sections F4.15 to F4.25); and ii  despite R5.20(c), cannot be assessed against the requirements for tier two at F4.35.

d  Applications received under tier two of the Parent Category:
    i  will be assessed against the requirements for tier two at F4.35 and the generic requirements for the Parent Category (sections F4.15 to F4.25); and ii  may be assessed against tier one requirements at F4.30 in accordance with R5.20(c).

e  Applications received under the Parent Category before 16 May 2012 will be processed using the requirements in force at the time they were accepted for processing.

f  Applications under the Parent Category will be approved if the applicants included in the application meet:
    i  health and character requirements applicable at the time their residence application was lodged; and ii  the additional requirements for the particular tier (see F4.30 or F4.35) on the basis of which they were invited to apply for residence or, in the case of tier one applications, the alternative requirements listed at F4.30 (a), (b) or (c) that were applicable at the time their residence application was lodged; and iii  the other criteria on the basis of which they were invited to apply for residence.

F4.13 Transitional provisions for Parent Category applications accepted for processing before 16 May 2012

See previous instructions F4.13 Effective 30/07/2012

- An applicant with a Parent Category application that was accepted for processing by Immigration New Zealand (INZ) before 16 May 2012 but has not been decided may submit a Parent Category expression of interest (EOI) (see F4.10).

- If the applicant is invited to apply for residence, they may lodge a new Parent Category application, provided they meet the requirements set out at F4.1.5.

Note: The applicant under F4.13.1 must submit an EOI in the prescribed manner, including paying the appropriate EOI fee (see F4.10.1)

F4.13.1 Application fee waivers

- The application fee will be waived for applications under tier one lodged by people who have an existing Parent Category that was accepted for processing before 16 May 2012 (as per F4.13 above).

- The application fee will not be waived for applications under tier two lodged by people who have an existing Parent Category that was accepted for processing before 16 May 2012 (as per F4.13 above).

- Where an applicant has a Parent Category application accepted for processing by INZ and their application fee waived, the Parent Category residence application that was accepted for processing before 16 May 2012 will be lapsed.

F4.13.5 Transitional provisions for medical and police certificates

- Where an applicant lodges a subsequent application under F4.13 above, the applicant’s:
  - Medical and Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1007) included in their initial Parent Category application may be considered valid for the purposes of A4.20 (http://inzkit/publish/opsmanual/#46161.htm); and
  - police certificate included in their initial Parent Category application may be considered valid for the purposes of A5.10(a).

- Applicants must still meet the health and character requirements set out at A4 and A5.

- Despite (a) above, an immigration officer may request:
  - a General Medical Certificate (INZ 1007) and a Chest X-ray Certificate (INZ 1096) which are less than three months old if they consider this is necessary to establish whether the applicant has an acceptable standard of health; and
  - a new police certificate if there is a good reason to do so.

F4.15.1 Minimum standard of English

a) Applications under the Parent Category must be declined if any applicant included in the application has not met the minimum standard of English or the requirements to pre-purchase English for speakers of other languages (ESOL) tuition.

b) Applicants under the Parent Category meet the minimum standard of English if they provide:
   i) acceptable English language test results, as set out at F4.15.45 (no more than two years old at the time the application is lodged); or

      o the country in which the applicant currently resides;
      o the country(ies) in which the applicant has previously resided;
      o the duration of residence in each country;
      o whether the applicant speaks any language other than English;
      o whether members of the applicant’s family speak English;

      o the nature of the applicant’s current or previous employment (if any) and whether that is or was likely to require skill in English language;
      o the nature of the applicant’s qualifications (if any) and whether the obtaining of those qualifications was likely to require skill in the English language; or
   iii) evidence of one of the following:
      o completion of all primary education and at least 3 years of secondary education (that is, the equivalent of New Zealand Forms 3 to 5 or years 9 to 11) at schools using English as the language of instruction;

iv are citizens of Samoa who have applications assessed under the Parent Category at the Apia Immigration New Zealand (INZ) branch and, after an interview, satisfy an immigration officer that they have sufficient English language ability.

c When applying (b) (iv) above, the interviewing immigration officer determines if applicants meet the minimum English language requirement by assessing whether they are able to:
i read English; and ii understand and respond to questions in English; and iii maintain an English language conversation about themselves, their family or their background.

d In any case, an immigration officer may require any or each applicant to provide an English language test result in terms of (b)(i) above. In such cases, the English language test result will be used to determine whether the applicant meets the minimum standard of English.

Note: Full consideration must be given to all evidence of English language ability provided before a decision to request an English language test result under F4.15.1 (d) is made. If an English language test result is requested, the reason(s) behind the decision must be clearly documented and conveyed to the applicant.

F4.15.5 Pre-purchase of English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) tuition a Instead of meeting the minimum standard of English, any applicant may pre-purchase ESOL tuition. ESOL tuition must be pre-purchased from the Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) by paying the required charge to INZ (who collect this charge on behalf of TEC).

b Applicants must pay any ESOL charge due, sign the ESOL Agreement and return it to INZ within the time specified by INZ before a resident visa is able to be granted (see F4.15.20).

F4.15.10 The amount of ESOL tuition to be pre-purchased by applicants For the purposes of the Parent Category, the amount of ESOL tuition to be paid is NZ$1,735 per applicant, which gives an ESOL entitlement of NZ$1,533.33 per applicant.

F4.15.15 TEC to arrange ESOL tuition a The applicant is entitled to tuition to the value of the ESOL entitlement of the ESOL tuition charge. This does not include the INZ and TEC administration costs.

b TEC advises the applicant of the list of suitable ESOL tuition providers in New Zealand, from which the applicant may nominate one of their own choice.

c TEC will manage the contract between the ESOL tuition provider and the applicant.

d The applicant must advise TEC of their New Zealand address.

F4.15.20 Applicant’s agreement with TEC a Each applicant who pre-purchases ESOL tuition must sign an Agreement with TEC by which they agree, among other things, that they understand the rules for taking up ESOL tuition in New Zealand and the refund provisions.

b The content of the Agreement is determined by INZ and TEC.

c Included with the Agreement is a Schedule that sets out the personal details of the applicant and the amount of tuition to be purchased.
F4.15.25 Completion of Agreement a When an application for a resident visa is approved in principle, applicants will be given two copies of the Agreement to complete for each person in the application undertaking ESOL tuition.
b After completion of the Agreement, one copy is retained by the applicant, and the other copy is returned to the relevant INZ processing office with the tuition fee(s). c If the Agreement is not signed and returned to INZ within the time specified by INZ, the resident visa application must be declined.
d The INZ copy of the Agreement should be sent to the TEC.

F4.15.30 Failure to pre-purchase ESOL tuition
Any ESOL tuition fee must be paid before a resident visa may be granted. If the tuition fee is not paid to the INZ within the specified time, the resident visa application must be declined.

F4.15.35 Limited period to use ESOL tuition a If ESOL tuition is purchased, the applicant must complete the tuition within five years from the date of payment.
b ESOL tuition will not be available without further payment, nor will refunds be given, to applicants who do not take up ESOL tuition within the time limits specified at F4.15.35 (a).

F4.15.40 Refund of ESOL tuition fees a If ESOL tuition fees are paid but the applicant does not take up residence by being a residence class visa holder in New Zealand, a refund of the ESOL tuition fee may be granted upon request to INZ. The request must be made in writing.
b Requests for refunds must be declined if they are made more than six months after the expiry of the travel conditions allowing travel to New Zealand.
c Immigration officers considering requests for refunds must be satisfied that none of the applicants included in the application have:
i entered New Zealand as residents; or ii hold resident visas with current travel conditions.
d The person who paid the ESOL tuition fee will only be refunded the ESOL entitlement. INZ and TEC administration costs will not be refunded.

a Principal applicants must:

   i nominate funds (or assets that can be converted into funds) to bring to New Zealand of a minimum value of NZ$500,000; and

   ii demonstrate ownership of the nominated funds and/or assets (see the evidential requirements set out at F4.40.30.5); and

b Funds or assets may be owned either:

   i solely by the principal applicant; or

   ii jointly by the principal applicant and their partner who is included in the resident visa application.

c The principal applicant may claim the full value of jointly owned funds or assets (as per F4.30.10(b)(ii) above) for assessment purposes, provided an immigration officer is satisfied the principal and secondary applicants meet the partnership requirements set out at R2.1.15.

d If funds or assets are held jointly by the principal applicant and a person other than their partner, the principal applicant may only claim the value of that portion of the funds or assets for which they provide evidence of ownership.

e The principal applicant may only nominate funds or assets that they earned or acquired legally, including funds and/or assets which have been gifted to them unconditionally and in accordance with local law (also see F4.5.25). Where nominated funds or assets have been gifted to the principal applicant an immigration officer must be satisfied that the funds or assets being gifted were earned lawfully by the person(s) gifting the funds or assets.

f The nominated funds and/or assets must be unencumbered.

g The nominated funds and/or assets must not be borrowed.

h The principal applicant and/or their partner who is included in the application must transfer, or have transferred, a total of NZ$500,000 in settlement funds to New Zealand from outside New Zealand.

Note: The value of the amount transferred will be dependent on the currency exchange rate at the time of transfer, not at the time the residence application is assessed (see also F4.30.10.15). Funds that have not been transferred to New Zealand by the principal applicant and/or their partner who is included in the application may not be used to meet requirements for F4.30.10.

F4.30.10.1 Aim and intent of settlement funds transfer

The instructions regarding the nominated settlements funds and the method of transfer of those funds to New Zealand are designed to ensure:

a the legitimacy and lawful ownership of the nominated funds; and b the direct transfer of the settlement funds through a structured and prescribed process to guarantee ongoing legitimacy and lawful ownership of the funds brought to New Zealand.

F4.30.10.5 Approval in principle pending the transfer of settlement funds

If the applicants meet the criteria set out for settlement funds at F4.30.10 and all other requirements under the Parent Category (excluding instructions for transferring funds to New Zealand at F4.30.10.15), the applicants will be advised that:
a their application has been approved in principle; and

b resident visas may be granted once they:
   i provide acceptable evidence of having transferred the nominated funds in accordance with the relevant instructions; and ii pay any outstanding fee for English language tuition to meet English language requirements (see F4.15).

F4.30.10.10 Timeframe for transferring funds to New Zealand a Principal applicants must meet the requirements for transferring nominated funds within 12 months of the date of the letter advising of approval in principle.

b Applications for a resident visa must be declined if a principal applicant does not present acceptable evidence of having transferred the nominated settlement funds within 12 months (or 18 months if an extension is granted, see provisions (c), (d), and (e) below) from the date of approval in principle.

c Principal applicants may request an extension to their transfer period for up six months.

d If a principal applicant wishes to request an extension to the timeframe for transferring the nominated funds to New Zealand, they must contact the immigration officer within 12 months of the date of the letter advising of Approval in Principle and present evidence of reasonable attempts to transfer the nominated funds to New Zealand.

e Following a principal applicant’s presentation of evidence an immigration officer may:
   i grant an extension to the transfer period if they believe the evidence shows the principal applicant has made reasonable attempts to transfer the nominated funds within the 12 month time period; or ii decline to grant an extension to the transfer period if they believe the principal applicant has not made reasonable attempts to transfer the nominated funds within the 12 month time period.

F4.30.10.15 Transferring funds to New Zealand a When their application meets the requirements for tier one through settlement funds, as per F4.30.10, and is approved in principle, the applicant will be required to transfer the nominated settlement funds to New Zealand and meet the evidential requirements set out at F4.40.30.10.

b A minimum of NZ$500,000 in total must be transferred to New Zealand.

c These funds must be the funds initially nominated, or the funds that result from the sale of the same assets as those initially nominated, in the resident visa application; and i be transferred through the banking system directly from the principal and/or secondary applicant’s bank account(s) to New Zealand; or ii be transferred by a foreign exchange company to New Zealand through the banking system.

   Immigration officers may not accept the transferred funds if the applicant cannot provide satisfactory evidence of the following:
   o the nominated funds have been transferred to the foreign exchange company directly from the applicant’s bank account(s); and o the nominated funds have been transferred through a foreign exchange company in a way that is not contrary to laws of New Zealand; and the nominated funds transferred are traceable; and o cash transactions were not made; and o the foreign exchange company is not suspected of, or proven to have committed, fraudulent activity or financial impropriety in any country it operates from or in.
d  Note: Nominated funds held in a country other than the country in which they were earned or acquired legally must have been originally transferred through the banking system, or a foreign exchange company that uses the banking system from the country in which they were earned or acquired.

F4.35 Effective 30/07/2012

In addition to the requirements of the Parent Category set out in sections F4.1 to F4.25, applicants under tier two of the Parent Category must meet both of the following requirements:

a Minimum income of sponsors (see F4.35.1); and b Location of applicants’ other adult children (see F4.35.5).

F4.35.1 Minimum income of sponsors a In order for an applicant to qualify for residence under tier two of the Parent Category, their sponsor or their sponsor’s partner must have a minimum income of at least $33,675 per annum before income tax. This must be met by personal taxable income that is obtained from one or any combination of:

   i sustained paid employment; or ii regular self-employment; or iii regular investment income.

b The minimum income requirement must be met by personal taxable income. Income earned by another legal entity, such as a company or a trust, cannot be included unless it has been paid directly to the sponsor or their partner in the form of shareholder-employee salary or dividends, or is income derived from the trust.

c When assessing whether the income obtained from the source(s) in (a) above is sustained and/or regular, officers may consider, but are not limited to, such factors as the length of employment, terms of employment and the regularity of payments.

d The sponsor’s partner’s income may only be considered if the partner:
   i has been living with the sponsor for a period of at least 12 months in a partnership that is genuine and stable (see F2.10.1), and they meet the requirements for the recognition of a partnership set out at F2.15; and

In order to qualify for residence under tier two of the Parent Category, all of the applicants’ adult children must live lawfully and permanently outside the country in which the applicant or applicants live lawfully and permanently (see F4.5.1 and F4.40.35).

F4.35.5.1 Deferring the final decision

a If the principal applicant under tier two has not met the criteria under F4.35.5 at the time of assessment, but may be able to meet the criteria within six months, the final decision on the application may be deferred for up to six months.

b A principal applicant and a partner included in the application already in New Zealand may be granted a further temporary visa or visas (once an application is made) for a period sufficient to enable a further assessment of their application after the six-month deferral period.

F4.35.10 Sponsors who are New Zealand Government beneficiaries ineligible a A person will not be invited to apply for residence if they:

   i submit an expression of interest under tier two; and ii indicate that their sponsor receives a New Zealand Government benefit from Work and Income.

b Sponsors who receive a New Zealand Government benefit from Work and Income at the time an application is assessed will not be eligible to sponsor applicants for residence under tier two requirements of the Parent Category.

- F5.1 Effective 30/07/2012
- F5.1 Effective 29/11/2010

a Principal applicants meet Dependent Child Category if their parent(s) are eligible to support a residence class visa under the Dependent Child Category (F5.1.5) and the applicant is:
   i aged 21 to 24,
      o with no child(ren) of their own, o single (see F5.5), and o totally or substantially reliant on an adult (whether their parent or not) for financial support, whether they live with them or not; or ii aged 18 to 20, o with no child(ren) of their own and o single (see F5.5); or iii aged 17 or younger and single (see F5.5).

b Where the parent(s) has previously applied for a residence class visa, principal applicants under Dependent Child Category must also:

   i the parent(s) of the principal applicant has previously applied for a residence class visa; and ii the principal applicant was born to, or adopted by, their parent(s) before their parent(s) application was decided; and iii the principal applicant was not declared as a dependent child on the parent(s) application for a residence class visa.

   i no intent to mislead on the part of either parent; and ii the outcome of the parent’s residence class visa application would not have been different had the dependent child been declared.
Note: Immigration officers should not decline an application on the basis of provision (c) above without first providing the principal applicant an opportunity to explain the non-declaration in accordance with R5.15 Explaining discrepancies in family details.

e When determining whether a child of 21 to 24 years of age is totally or substantially reliant on an adult (whether their parent or not) for financial support, immigration officers must consider the whole application, taking into account all relevant factors including:
- whether the child is in paid employment, whether this is full time or part time, and its duration;
- whether the child has any other independent means of financial support;
- whether the child is living with its parents or another family member, and the extent to which other support is provided;

F7 Inter-country adoption F7.1 Guidelines for inter-country adoptions

a. If a New Zealand residence class visa holder or citizen legally adopts a child overseas, they may apply on its behalf for either New Zealand citizenship or residence.

b. If a residence class visa is applied for, the child must meet the same requirements as other children of New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders.

c. The fact that a child has been adopted does not, of itself, entitle the child to be granted with a visa to travel to New Zealand, and immigration officers must assess whether or not the child meets the requirements for a residence class visa or a temporary class visa.

d. A standard prerequisite for a child to travel to New Zealand for adoption purposes is the support of social welfare agencies, both in New Zealand and in the child's country of origin.

F7.5 Citizenship procedure a The Department of Internal Affairs administers the Citizenship Act 1977 and determines whether or not an adopted child has a claim to New Zealand citizenship.
b Adoptive parents who are New Zealand citizens must apply to the appropriate overseas post or to the Department of Internal Affairs to determine the citizenship of the child.
c The process of determining citizenship involves establishing whether or not the adoption meets the requirements under section 17 of the Adoption Act 1955, and the process can be both complex and lengthy.

F7.5.1 Immigration requirements for adopted children a Children adopted overseas or in New Zealand must meet immigration requirements unless, and until, their New Zealand citizenship is established.
b Evidence of New Zealand citizenship should be supplied to INZ if a child on a temporary visa in New Zealand is granted citizenship.

F7.10 Pre-adoption information

a  Under the Adoptions Act 1955, social workers approve prospective parents and report to the Family Court, which rules on individual adoptions.

b  Generally, the authorities in the child's country of origin must give permission for it to leave, and the adoption must conform with the law of that country.

c  INZ offices should advise prospective adoptive parents to consult the Ministry for Children, Oranga Tamariki, and to contact the equivalent welfare agency in the child's country.

d  The Ministry for Children, Oranga Tamariki will arrange for a home study and liaise with the appropriate inter-country adoption agency for a child study, after which the Ministry for Children, Oranga Tamariki will advise INZ of the results.

e  The Ministry for Children, Oranga Tamariki may also ask overseas posts to investigate the circumstances of the child.
